65.5 黄帝曰：“妇人无须者，无血气乎？”

65.6 岐伯曰：“冲脉、任脉皆起于胞中，上循背里，为经络之海，其浮而外者，循腹右上行，会于咽喉，别而络唇口。血气盛则充肤热肉，血独盛者澹渗皮肤，生毫毛。今妇人之生，有余于气，不足于血，以其数脱血也，冲任之脉，不荣口唇，故须不生焉。”

65.7 黄帝曰：“士人有伤于阴，阴气绝而不起，阴不用，然其须不去，其故何也？宦者独去何也？愿闻其故。”

65.8 岐伯曰：“宦者去其宗筋，伤其冲脉，血泻不复，皮肤内结，唇口不荣，故须不生。”

【今译】

65.5 黄帝说：“妇人无胡须，是没有血气吗？”

65.6 岐伯说：“冲、任二脉，皆起于胞中，向上循行于脊背的里面，是经络之海。其中浮现在体表的，沿腹部右侧上行，交会于咽喉，其中的一条分支，从咽喉分出，络口唇。血气充盛则能肌肉丰满，皮肤润泽，血独旺盛则渗灌皮肤，滋生毫毛。妇人的生理特点是气有余而血不足，因其每月都有经血排出，使得冲、任脉之血，不能营养口唇，所以妇人不生胡须。”

65.7 黄帝说：“有人损伤了阴器，阳痿而不能勃起，丧失了性功能，但其胡须仍继续生长，这是什么原因呢？宦官的胡须为什么就不生长了呢？请你讲讲其中的道理。”

65.8 岐伯说：“宦官割去了睾丸，损伤了冲脉，使冲脉之血外泄，不能正常运行，伤口愈合后皮肤干结，唇口得不到冲任二脉气血

65. 5 Huangdi said, "Woman does not have beard or moustache. Does it mean that she has no blood and Qi?"

65. 6 Qibo said, "The Chongmai (Thoroughfare Vessel) and the Renmai (Conception Vessel) all start from the uterus, run along the interior of the back and are the seas of the Channels and Collaterals. [The parts that run] superficially beneath the skin ascend along the abdomen and converge over the throat. [One of the] branch circles around the lips. [If] the blood and Qi are abundant, the skin will be nourished and the muscles will be warmed. [If] only the blood is abundant, it will infuse into the skin and nourish the body hair. The physiological characteristics of woman are excessive in Qi and insufficient in blood [due to the fact that she] frequently loses blood. [As a result, the blood and Qi in] the Chongmai (Thoroughfare Vessel) and the Renmai (Conception Vessel) cannot [flow upward] to nourish the mouth and the lips. That is why [woman] does not have beard and moustache."

65. 8 Qibo said, "In a castrated person, the Zongjin (the scrotum and testis) was removed, the Chongmai (Thoroughfare Vessel) was damaged and the blood cannot be normalized when being discharged. 65.10 岐伯曰：“此天之所不足也，其任冲不盛，宗筋不成，有气无血，唇口不荣，故须不生。”

65.11 黄帝曰：“善乎哉！圣人之通万物也，若日月之光影，音声鼓响，闻其声而知其形，其非夫子，孰能明万物之精。是故圣人视其颜色，黄赤者多热气，青白者少热气，黑色者多血少气。美眉者，太阳多血；通髯极须者，少阳多血；美须者，阳明多血，此其时然也。

65.9 黄帝说：“有人是天阉，宗筋并不曾受伤，也不象妇人那样每月排出月经，却也不生胡须，这又是什么原因呢？”

65.10 岐伯说：“这是先天的不足，这种人冲、任二脉不充盛，阴茎和睾丸发育也不健全，虽有气但血不足，口唇不得荣养，所以胡须不生。”

65.11 黄帝说：“很好！圣人之能通晓万事万物，就像日月之有光和影，鼓响之有声音，听到鼓响，就能知其形状，除了先生你，谁能如此洞悉万物之理呢！所以圣人通过观察人的颜色，就能推知体内的情况，色黄赤的，体内气血热。色青白的，体内气血寒。色黑的，多血少气。眉毛秀美的，太阳经多血。须髯很长的，少阳经多血；胡须美好的，阳明经多血。这是一般的规律。

65. 9 Huangdi said, “There are some people [who are like being] congenitally castrated. [They have] never been injured and [they have] never lost blood [as in menstruation occurring in woman], but they don’t have beard and moustache. What is the reason?”

65. 10 Qibo said, “This is due to congenital deficiency. [In these people,] the Renmai (Conception Vessel) and the Chongmai (Thoroughfare Vessel) are not full, the Zongjin (the scrotum and testis) is not well developed, there is sufficient Qi but insufficient blood. So the lips and the mouth cannot be well nourished. That is why [these people] don’t have beard and moustache. ”

65. 11 Huangdi said, “Very good! The sages can understand all the things in the world as clearly as the shine of the sun and the moon, and the sound of the drum being beaten. [When] hearing the sound, [they can understand] the shape [of the things that have emitted such sound]. If it were not you, who else could understand the gist of everything! So when the sages observe the complexion, [they know that] yellow and red [complexion indicates] excessive heat [in the blood and] Qi, blue and white [complexion indicates] scanty heat [in the blood and] Qi, black [complexion indicates] excessive blood and insufficient Qi. [They know that] beautiful eyebrows [indicate] excessive blood in [the Channels of] Taiyang, long beard [indicate] excessive blood in [the Channels of] Shaoyang, beautiful moustache [indicates] excessive blood in [the Channels of] Yangming. 66.1 黄帝问于岐伯曰：“夫百病之始生也，皆生于风雨寒暑，清湿喜怒。喜怒不节则伤脏，风雨则伤上，清湿则伤下。三部之气，所伤异类，愿闻其会。”

66.2 岐伯曰：“三部之气各不同，或起于阴，或起于阳，请言其方。喜怒不节则伤脏，脏伤则病起于阴也；清湿袭虚，则病起于下，风雨袭虚，则病起于上，是谓三部。至于其淫泆，不可胜数。”

66.1 黄帝问岐伯说：“各种疾病的产生，都是由于风、雨、寒、暑、清、湿等外邪以及喜怒等内伤所引起。若喜怒不节，则使内脏受伤；风雨之邪伤人体的上部；清湿之邪伤人体的下部。造成上中下三部损伤的邪气不同，我想知道其中的道理。”

66.2 岐伯说：“喜怒、风雨、清湿三种邪气的性质不同，或病先生于阴分，或病先发生于阳分，请让我讲一讲其中的道理。喜怒不节，则内伤五脏，五脏为阴，所以说病起于阴；清湿之邪善乘虚侵袭人体下部，所以说病起于下；风雨之邪善乘虚侵袭人体上部，所以说病起于上。这就是邪易犯的三个部位。至于邪气在人体浸淫后的发展变化，其复杂的情况就更加难以数计了。”

Chapter 66

Baibing Shisheng: The Occurrence of All Diseases

66. 1 Huangdi asked Qibo, "The occurrence of all diseases is caused exclusively by [attack of pathogenic] wind, rain, cold, summer-heat, coolness and dampness [as well as emotional changes such as] excessive rejoicing and anger. Excessive rejoicing and anger damage the Zang-Organs, [pathogenic] wind and rain damage the upper [part of the body], [pathogenic] coolness and dampness damage the lower [part of the body]. The Qi (pathogenic factor) [that attacks] the three regions (the upper, middle and lower part of the body) is different. I'd like to know the explanation. "

66. 2 Qibo said, "The Qi (pathogenic factor) [that attacks] the three regions is different. [The disease] may arise from the Yin [phase] or from the Yang [phase. Please allow me to explain it. Excessive rejoicing and anger damage the Zang-Organs. [When] the Zang-Organs are damaged, the disease will arise from the Yin [phase]; [when pathogenic] coolness and dampness attack the weak [part of the body], the disease will arise from the lower [part of the body]; [when pathogenic] wind and rain attack the weak [part of the body], the disease will arise from the upper [part of the body]. These are the three regions [subject to attack of pathogenic factors]. As to the spreading [of the pathogenic factors inside the body], that is too complicated to be enumerated. "

66.3 黄帝曰：“余固不能数，故问先师，愿卒闻其道。”

66.4 岐伯曰：“风雨寒热，不得虚，邪不能独伤人。卒然逢疾风暴雨而不病者，盖无虚，故邪不能独伤人。此必因虚邪之风，与其身形，两虚相得，乃客其形。两实相逢，众人肉坚。其中于虚邪也，因于天时，与其身形，参以虚实，大病乃成，气有定舍，因处为名，上下中外，分为三员。

66.3 黄帝说：“我当然不能尽数说出来，所以才请教你，希望完全明白其中的道理。”

66.4 岐伯说：“风雨寒热之邪，若不遇身体虚弱，一般是不会伤害人体而致病的。突遭疾风暴雨而不生病的，就是因为其身体健壮，不虚弱，邪气也不能单独伤人而致病，疾病的发生，必因身体虚弱，又受到了贼风邪气的侵袭，两虚相合，才能发生疾病；如果身体健壮，肌肉坚实，四时之气正常，就不会发生疾病。所以说凡是疾病的发生，决定于四时之气是否正常，以及身体是否虚弱，若正虚邪实，就会发病。邪气一般都根据其性质不同而侵袭人体的一定部位，依据发病部位的不同，而命以不同的名称，纵的分为上、中、下三部，横的分为表、里、半表半里三部。

66.5 所以虚邪贼风侵害人体，首先侵犯皮肤，若皮肤松弛，不能紧收，则腠理开泄，腠理开则邪从毛孔而入，逐渐向深处侵犯，就

66. 3 Huangdi said, "I'm certainly unable to enumerate [the pathological changes of all diseases]. That is why I ask you. I hope that you can explain it for me."

66. 4 Qibo said, "[As to the pathogenic] wind, rain, cold and heat, they cannot attack the body [if there is] no weakness [in the body]. [If a person is] suddenly attacked by strong wind and heavy rain but does not fall ill, [it is due to the fact that there is] no weakness [in his body]. Xie (Evil) cannot attack people [under normal condition]. [The occurrence of disease] must be caused by weakness of the body complicated by attack of Xuxie (Deficiency-Evil). [When] abnormal changes of weather attack [a person whose body is] weak, it will damage the body [and cause disease]; [when a person's body is] strong and the weather changes are normal, no disease will be caused. The attack of the body by Xuxie (Deficiency-Evil) is due to [abnormal changes of] weather and [weakness of] the body. The confrontation between the Xu (Deficiency) and Shi (Excess) gives rise to the occurrence of serious disease. [When] Qi (pathogenic factor) [attacks the body, it resides at] certain regions [according to its nature] and is named according to these regions. The upper, the lower, the internal and the external [parts of the body can be] classified into three regions."

66. 5 "The invasion of Xuxie (Deficiency-Evil) into the human body begins from the skin. [When] the skin is loose, the Couli (muscular interstice) will be open. [When the muscular interstice is] open, Xie (Evil) will invade [the body] from body hair. [Gradually the pathogenic factor will] deepen [its invasion when it has] attacked [the body]. 趾高气扬，心肺之脏气有余，阳气滑利充盛激扬，所以神气易激动而针刺得气较快。”

67.5 黄帝说：“有些重阳之人，神气并不易激动，这是为什么？”

67.6 岐伯说：“这些人阴气也较盛。”

67.7 黄帝说：“怎么知道这些人阴气较盛呢？”

67.8 岐伯说：“多阳的人多喜乐，多阴的人多恼怒，常发怒而又消得快，所以说他阴气也较盛，阳为阴滞，阴阳离合难，所以神气不能先行。”

67.9 黄帝说：“有些人针刺后很快得气，这是什么道理呢？”

67.10 岐伯说：“这些人阴阳和调，则气血润泽滑利，所以针刺

67.5 Huangdi said, “Why in some of the people with superabundance of Yang the Spirit cannot be stimulated so easily?”

67.6 Qibo said, “These people have much Yin [in their body though the Yang in their body is superabundant]. ”

67.7 Huangdi said, “How do you know that they have much Yin [in their body]?”

67.8 Qibo said, “People with excessive Yang are usually happy while people with excessive Yin frequently flare into anger. [Though they] are frequently angry, [their anger] is easy to be relieved. This shows that they have much Yin [within the Yang]. [In these people, there is Yin within Yang and Yang is astringed by Yin.] So Yin and Yang are difficult to be separated and mingled. That is why the Spirit [in these people] cannot be activated before [the needle is manipulated]. ”

67.9 Huangdi said, “Why [in some people] the Qi (needling sensation) appears right after the insertion of the needle?”

67.10 Qibo said, “[Because in these people] Yin and Yang are in harmony, the blood and Qi are abundant and flow smoothly. That is why the Qi (needling sensation) appears right

67.13 黄帝曰：“数刺乃知，何气使然？”

67.14 岐伯曰：“此人之多阴而少阳，其气沉而气往难，故数刺乃知也。”

67.12 岐伯说：“这些人阴气多而阳气少，阴气沉而阳气浮，阴气偏盛主内藏，所以针刺反应迟缓，在出针后，阳气才随针而上浮，才出现反应。”

67.13 黄帝说：“有些人针刺数次才有反应，这是什么气促使的呢？”

67.14 岐伯说：“这些人多阴而少阳，神气沉潜很难被激动，气至难，所以数次针刺后才有反应。”

67.15 黄帝说：“有些人针刺后出现晕针等现象，是什么气促使的呢？”

67.16 岐伯说：“针刺后出现晕针以及针刺数次后病情加重的，不是人体阴阳的偏盛偏衰，及气机的升降沉浮造成的，这都是由于医生的

67. 11 Huangdi said, “Why sometimes the Qi (needling sensation) still remains after the needle is withdrawn?”

67. 12 Qibo said, “This [is due to] excess of Yinqi and insufficiency of Yangqi. Yinqi tends to descend and Yangqi tends to ascend. [When Yinqi is excessive, it drives Qi to descend, astringe and] reside inside, [so the needling sensation is slow to appear]. That is why the Qi (needling sensation) arrives after the needle is withdrawn. That is why the response of needling appears so late. ”

67. 13 Huangdi said, “Why [in some people] the response appears after several times of needling?”

67. 14 Qibo said, “These people have excessive Yin but insufficient Yang. So the Qi [in these people] tends to descend and is difficult to arrive. That is why the needling response does not appear until several times of needling. ”

67. 15 Huangdi said, “Why [in some people] the Qi flows adversely after the insertion of the needle?”

67. 16 Qibo said, “[The occurrence of] adverse flow of Qi and aggravation of disease after several times of needling are not caused by [the relative superabundance or relative decline,] or the ascending and descending of the Qi of Yin and Yang. Notes:

[1] The original Chinese characters for “people” are Bai (百 hundred) and Xing (姓 family name). In Lingshu (灵枢), the expression Bai (百 hundred) and Xing (姓 family name) has appeared in several places. In the previous chapters, the expression Bai (百 hundred) and Xing (姓 family name) is used to refer to the officials because originally only the nobles and the officials had family names and common people or the slaves did not have family names. That was why in the early period in ancient China the expression Bai (百 hundred) and Xing (姓 family name) was used to refer to the officials. That is also the case of Bai (百 hundred) and Xing (姓 family name) used in the previous chapters. But in this chapter, the expression Bai (百 hundred) and Xing (姓 family name) seems to refer to common people according to the context. As we know, Huangdi Neijing (黄帝内经) was compiled by different people in different times. Some of the chapters might be written or compiled much later than the others. So in the chapters written and compiled later, such as in the Spring and Autumn Period (春秋时期), the Warring States Period (战国时期), the Qin Dynasty (秦朝 221 BC-206 BC) or the Han Dynasty (汉朝 206 BC-220 AD), the meaning of the same expressions might be changed just as the expression of Bai (百 hundred) and Xing (姓 family name) used in this book.

上膈第六十八

【原文】

68.1 黄帝曰：“气为上膈者，食饮入而还出，余已知之矣。虫为下膈，下膈者，食晬时乃出，余未得其意，愿卒闻之。”

68.2 岐伯曰：“喜怒不适，食饮不节，寒温不时，则寒汁流于肠中。流于肠中则虫寒，虫寒则积聚，守于下管，则肠胃充郭，卫气不营，邪气居之。人食则虫上食，虫上食则下管虚，下管虚则邪气胜之，积聚以留，留则痈成，痈成则下管约。其痈在管内者，即而痛深，其痈在外者，则痈外而痛浮，痈上皮热。”

68.3 黄帝曰：“刺之奈何？”

【今译】

68.1 黄帝问：“因气机郁结在上，形成食入即吐的上膈证，我已经知道了。至于因虫积在下所形成的下膈证，食入后一天才会吐出，我还不明白其中的道理，希望详尽地告诉我。”

68.2 岐伯说：“由于情志不遂，饮食不节，不能适应气候的寒温变化，致使胃运化失常，使寒湿流于肠中，肠中寒湿流注使肠寄生虫因寒冷而聚集在一起，虫聚集在下脘，胃肠形成壅塞，使阳气不得温通，邪气也就稽留在这里。进食的时候，虫闻到气味，便向上求食，使下脘空虚，邪气乘虚侵入，积聚在内，稽留日久，就形成了内痈。内痈即成，肠道就狭窄，传化不利。痈在下脘之内的，痛的部位较深；痈在下脘之外的，痛的部位较浅，在痛的部位上，皮肤发热。”

68.3 黄帝说：“怎样针刺这种病症呢？”

Chapter 68

Shangge: Vomiting Right after Meal

68. 1 Huangdi said, “I have already known Shangge^[1] due to stagnation of Qi in the upper [region] in which the meal is vomited out immediately after being taken. [As to] Xiage^[2] due to parasitic infestation in which the meal taken the day before is vomited out, I’m not clear about the cause. I hope that you can explain it for me.”

68. 2 Qibo said, “Abnormal emotional changes, intemperance in eating and failure to adapt to the changes of weather will lead to flow of cold juice into the intestines. [When cold juice has] flown into the intestines, parasites will feel cold. [When] the parasites feel cold, [they will] gather and stay in the pylorus region. That is why the intestines and the stomach are dilated and prevent Weiqi (Defensive-Qi) from flowing, giving rise to the retention of Xieqi (Evil-Qi). [When] a person is taking food, the parasites will move up to take food. [When] the parasites have moved up to take food, the pylorus region will be empty. [If] the pylorus region is empty, Xieqi (Evil-Qi) will be predominant there. [If the pathogenic factor] accumulates and resides there, carbuncle will be caused. [If] the carbuncle has occurred, the pylorus region will be obstructed. [If] the carbuncle is located inside the pylorus, the pain will be deep; [if] the carbuncle is located outside the pylorus, the pain will be shallow and the skin over the carbuncle is feverish.”

68. 3 Huangdi said, “How [to treat it with] needling?”

【原文】

68.4 岐伯曰：“微按其痛，视气所行，先浅刺其傍，稍内益深，还而刺之，毋过三行，察其沉浮，以为深浅。已刺必熨，令热入中，日使热内，邪气益衰，大痛乃溃。伍以参禁，以除其内；恬憺无为，乃能行气。后以咸苦，化谷乃下矣。”

【今译】

68.4 岐伯说：“针刺的方法是：用手轻按痛肿部，以观察病气发展的动向，先浅刺痛部的周围，再逐渐深刺，然后照样反复进行针刺，但不要超过三次。根据病位的深浅，来确定针刺的深浅。针刺后，必用温熨法，使热气直达内部，只要使阳气日渐温通，邪气就日趋衰退，内痛就会溃散。再配合适当的调理，不要犯各种禁忌，以消除致病因素再伤内脏的可能性，清心寡欲，以恢复元气，然后再服咸苦的药物，以软坚化积，使饮食得以向下传输。”

68.4 Qibo said, "Slightly press the carbuncle to observe how it moves. Insert needles around the carbuncle first. Gradually deepen the insertion. Such a needling is repeated no more than three times. The depth of needling is determined according to the depth of the carbuncle. Needling should be followed by Moxibustion to guide heat to the interior. [If] heat is guided to the interior everyday, Xieqi (Evil-Qi) will certainly be reduced and the carbuncle will be naturally dissipated. [Besides,] the daily activities should be adjusted and [cares should be taken] to avoid violating any forbiddance so as to prevent interior damage. [The patient should] maintain a calm and peaceful mind and be free from any avarice in order to enable the Qi to flow smoothly. [The patient should take food] salty and bitter [in taste] to promote digestion and transmission of food."

Notes:

[1] Shangge (上膈) is a disease characterized by vomiting right after meal.

[2] Xiage (下膈) is a Syndrome caused by parasitic infestation in which the patient vomits the meal taken the day before due to indigestion and retention of food in the stomach.

忧恚无言第六十九

【原文】

69.1 黄帝问于少师曰：“人之卒然忧恚，而言无音者，何道之塞？何气出行？使音不彰？愿闻其方。”

69.2 少师答曰：“咽喉者，水谷之道也。喉咙者，气之所以上下者也。会厌者，音声之户也。口唇者，音声之扇也。舌者，音声之机也。悬雍垂者，音声之关也。颧颞者，分气之所泄也。横骨者，神气所使，主发舌者也。故人之鼻洞涕出不收者，颧颞不开，分气失也。是故厌小而疾薄，则发气疾；其开阖利，其出气易；其厌大而厚，则开阖难，其气出迟，故重言也。人卒然无音者，寒气客于厌，则厌不能发，发不能下，至其开阖不致，故无音。”

【今译】

69.1 黄帝问少师说：“有人突然忧愤而发不出声音，是人体哪条道路被阻塞了？是哪一种气不能通行，使声音发不出呢？我想听听其中的道理。”

69.2 少师回答说：“咽喉，是饮食水谷的道路；喉咙，是气上下出入的通道；会厌，是发声的门户；口唇，是声音的门扇；舌，是声音的枢机；悬壅垂，是发声的关键；颧颞，是气由此分出口鼻的地方；横骨，受神志支配，控制舌的运动。所以鼻腔涕流不止的人，是由于颧颞不开，分气失职的缘故。会厌小而薄的人，呼吸畅快，开阖流利，出气容易，言语流畅。会厌大而厚的人，开阖困难，出气迟缓，所以说话口吃。突然失音的人，是由于寒邪侵犯会厌，会厌活动不自如，气道不利，导致发声器官失去了开阖的作用，就形成了失音症。”

Chapter 69

Youhui Wuyan: Loss of Voice due to Anxiety and Rage

69. 1 Huangdi asked Shaoshi, "A person may lose the voice due to sudden anxiety and rage. What passage is obstructed and what kind of Qi cannot flow when it causes the loss of voice? I'd like to know the explanation."

69. 2 Shaoshi answered, "The throat is the passage of the water and food. The throat [extends to the lung] and is the passage through which the air is breathed out and breathed in. The epiglottis [, located between the pharynx and the throat,] is the door of voice. The lips are the door of voice. The tongue is the trigger of voice. The uvula is the pass of voice. The nasopharynx is the orifice through which the air from the mouth and the nose passes. The transverse bone (the cartilage attached to the root of the tongue) is controlled by the Spirit and governs the movement of the tongue. So incessant snivel discharged from the nose is due to obstruction of the nasopharynx and failure of air to pass through. [If] the epiglottis is thin and small, respiration will be free and smooth, exhalation will be rapid and it will be easy to open and close. [That is why] exhalation is easy. [If] the epiglottis is large and thick, it will be difficult to open and close and therefore the exhalation will be slow. That is why [the person] stutters. [If] a person has suddenly lost voice, [it is usually caused by] invasion of cold into the epiglottis which makes it impossible for the epiglottis to open or close after opening. Inability [of the epiglottis] to open and close causes the loss of voice."

【原文】

69.3 黄帝曰：“刺之奈何？”

69.4 岐伯曰：“足之少阴，上系于舌，络于横骨，终于会厌。两泻其血脉，浊气乃辟。会厌之脉，上络任脉，取之天突，其厌乃发也。”

【今译】

69.3 黄帝说：“怎样用针刺治疗呢？”

69.4 岐伯说：“足少阴经，上行系于舌根，联络于横骨，终止于会厌。针刺时，当取足少阴经上联于会厌的脉络，须泻两次，邪气才能排除。会厌的脉络，与任脉相联，再针刺任脉的天突，会厌就能恢复开阖，发出声音了。”

69.3 Huangdi said, “How [to treat it with] needling?”

69.4 Qibo said, “[The Kidney Channel of] Foot-Shaoyin connects with the tongue, links with the transverse bone (the cartilage attached to the root of tongue) and terminates at the epiglottis. [To use acupuncture therapy to treat disease,] the blood vessel [should be pricked] to let out blood twice^[1] to remove the turbid Qi^[2]. [The part of the Kidney] Channel [of Foot-Shaoyin] over the epiglottis runs upward to link with the Renmai (Conception Vessel). So needling Tiantu (CV 22) can normalize the function of the epiglottis. ”

Notes:

[1] The original Chinese characters for this part are Liang (两 twice) Xie (泻 reduce or prick to let out blood) Qi (其 it) Xue (血 blood) Mai (脉 Channel or vessel). One explanation about these Chinese characters is to needle the Acupoints located on the Kidney Channel of Foot-Shaoyin and the Renmai (Conception Vessel). Another explanation is to needle the part of the Kidney Channel of Foot-Shaoyin twice over the epiglottis with the reducing techniques.

[2] Turbid Qi (浊气) here means pathogenic cold.

70.1 黄帝问于岐伯曰：“寒热瘰癧在于颈腋者，皆何气使生？”

70.2 岐伯曰：“此皆鼠痿寒热之毒气也，留于脉而不去者也。”

70.3 黄帝曰：“去之奈何？”

70.4 岐伯曰：“鼠痿之本，皆在于脏，其末上出于颈腋之间，其浮于脉中，而未内著于肌肉，而外为脓血者，易去也。”

70.5 黄帝曰：“去之奈何？”

70.6 岐伯曰：“请从其本引其末，可使衰去而绝其寒热。审按其道以予之，徐往徐来以去之，其小如麦者，一刺知，三刺而已。”

【今译】

70.1 黄帝问岐伯说：“时发寒热的瘰癧病，多生在颈部和腋下，这是什么原因造成的？”

70.2 岐伯说：“这都是鼠痿的寒热毒气，稽留在经脉，不能消除的结果。”

70.3 黄帝说：“怎样消除它呢？”

70.4 岐伯说：“鼠痿的病根，都在内脏，它所反映的症状，却上出于颈腋之间，如果毒气仅是浅浮在脉中，还没有内伤肌肉，腐化为脓血的，较容易治疗。”

70.5 黄帝说：“怎样治疗呢？”

70.6 岐伯说：“应从致病的根源着手来治疗瘰癧，可使毒气衰退，寒热停止。要察明主病的脏腑经脉，以便循经取穴，给予针刺，慢慢的进出针，以达到扶正祛邪的目的。瘰癧初起，形小如麦粒的，针一次便能见效，针三次即可痊愈。”

Chapter 70

Hanre: Cold and Heat

70.1 Huangdi asked Qibo, “Scrofula with frequent alternate chills and fever often occurs in the neck and the armpit. What is the cause of it?”

70.2 Qibo said, “This is [the disease of] scrofula with fistula caused by toxin of cold and heat that accumulates in the Channels and is difficult to be removed.”

70.3 Huangdi said, “How to remove it?”

70.4 Qibo said, “The root cause of scrofula is in the internal organs and the symptoms are manifested over the neck and armpit. [If the toxin] floats in the Channels and does not deepen into the muscles, it will transform into pus in the blood which is easy to be removed.”

70.5 Huangdi said, “How to remove it?”

70.7 黄帝曰：“决其生死奈何？”

70.8 岐伯曰：“反其目视之，其中有赤脉，上下贯瞳子，见一脉，一岁死；见一脉半，一岁半死；见二脉，二岁死；见二脉半，二岁半死；见三脉，三岁而死。见赤脉不下贯瞳子，可治也。”

【今译】

70.7 黄帝说：“怎样判断患者的生死呢？”

70.8 岐伯说：“翻开患者的眼皮进行观察，如果眼中有赤脉，上下贯穿瞳子，出现一条赤脉的，死期当在一年；出现一条半赤脉的，死期当在一年半；出现两条赤脉的，死期当在两年；出现两条半赤脉的，死期当在两年半。如果出现三条赤脉的，死期当在三年。如果出现赤脉，还没有向下贯穿瞳子的，还可以医治。”

70. 7 Huangdi said, "How to make prognosis?"

70. 8 Qibo said, "[The patient's] eyelid is turned to examine whether there is red vessel crossing the pupil from the upper to the lower. [If] there is one red vessel [crossing the pupil from the upper to the lower of the eye, the patient will] die in one year; [if] there is one and a half vessel observed, [the patient will] die in a year and a half; [if] there are two vessels observed, [the patient will] die in two years; [if] there are two and a half vessels observed, [the patient will] die in two and a half years; [if] there are three vessels observed, [the patient will] die in three years. [If] the red vessel does not cross the pupil, it is curable."

邪客第七十一

【原文】

71.1 黄帝问于伯高曰：“夫邪气之客人也，或令人目不瞑不卧出者，何气使然？”

71.2 伯高曰：“五谷入于胃也，其糟粕、津液、宗气分为三隧。故宗气积于胸中，出于喉咙，以贯心脉，而行呼吸焉。营气者，泌其津液，注之于脉，化以为血，以荣四末，内注五脏六腑，以应刻数焉。卫气者，出其悍气之慄疾，而先行于四末、分肉、皮肤之间，而不休者也。昼日行于阳，夜行于阴，常从足少阴之分间，行于五脏

Chapter 71

Xieke: Invasion of Pathogenic Factors

71.1 Huangdi asked Bogao, “When Xieqi (Evil-Qi) attacks people, [it may] make people unable to sleep. What Qi is responsible for such a consequence?”

71.2 Qibo said, “[When] the five kinds of grains have been taken into the stomach, the waste, body fluid and Zongqi (Thoracic-Qi) flow along three tunnels respectively. The Zongqi (Thoracic-Qi) accumulates in the chest, runs up to the throat, penetrates through the heart vessels and propels respiration. The Yingqi (Nutrient-Qi) secretes body fluid, infuses into the Channels and transforms into the blood to [externally] nourish the four limbs and internally infuse into the Five Zang-Organs and the Six Fu-Organs in order to correspond to the graduations [of the clepsydra] . The Weiqi (Defensive-Qi), the intrepid and swift Qi [transformed from the food nutrients], first flows incessantly in the four limbs, muscles and skin. In the daytime, it flows in the Yang [phase]; in the night, it flows in the Yin [phase]. Usually [it begins to flow] from [the Kidney Channel] of Foot-Shaoyin and then runs into the Five Zang-Organs and the Six Fu-Organs [respectively]. 71.4 伯高曰：“补其不足，泻其有余，调其虚实，以通其道，而去其邪。饮以半夏汤一剂，阴阳已通，其卧立至。”

71.3 黄帝说：“好。怎样治疗呢？”

71.4 伯高说：“补阴分的不足，泻阳分的有余，调和虚实，沟通阴阳经交会的道路，以消除厥逆的邪气，再服半夏汤一剂，使阴阳之气通调，这样就能安睡。”

71.5 黄帝说：“好。这种针药并用的方法就像决开水道，清除瘀塞一样，使经络畅通，阴阳调和。希望听一听半夏汤那个方子。”

71.6 伯高说：“半夏汤方，是用千里长流水八升，先煮长流

[When] Yangqi is superabundant, Yangqiao (Yang Heel Vessel) will be full. [Since the Weiqi (Defensive-Qi)] cannot enter the Yin [phase], Yin will be deficient. That is why [people] cannot sleep."

71.3 Huangdi said, "Good! How to treat it then?"

71.4 Bogao said, "[If it is caused by] insufficiency [of Healthy-Qi, it should be treated by] reinforcing [therapy]; [if it is caused by] excess [of pathogenic factor, it should be treated by] reducing [therapy]. [The purpose of such a treatment is] to regulate Xu (Deficiency) and Shi (Excess) in order to dredge the passage [through which Yin and Yang communicate with each other] to remove Xie (Evil). [After being treated by needling, the patient can] take one dose of Banxia (Rhizoma Pinelliae, pinellia tuber) Decoction. [When] Yin and Yang are well regulated, [the patient will] be able to sleep immediately."

71.5 Huangdi said, "Good! Such [a combined use of needling and medicinal decoction] is just like to dredge a river. [The aim of such a treatment is] to dredge the Channels and Collaterals and balance Yin and Yang. I'd like to know the composition of this prescription."

71.6 Bogao said, "[To prepare the Banxia] Decoction,

71.13 黄帝说：“唯独手少阴经脉没有腧穴，为什么呢？”

71.14 岐伯说：“手少阴，是心脉。心是五脏六腑的主宰，又是蕴藏精神的中枢，心脏坚固，外邪就不能侵袭。若邪气侵入，就会损伤心脏，使神气耗散，人也就死亡了。因此，凡是各种病邪侵犯心脏的，其邪气均留滞在心脏的包络上。包络，是心主之脉，所以唯独手少阴心经是没有腧穴的。”

71.15 黄帝说：“唯独手少阴心经没有腧穴，难道它不受病吗？”

71.16 岐伯说：“在外的经脉有病，而心脏没有病，所以当心经有病时，可独取心经在掌后锐骨之端的神门穴。其余经脉的出入屈

Running upward about two Cun, it turns outward, emerges from between the two tendons, runs upward along the medial side of the elbow, enters the region below the small tendon and resides in the convergence of the two bones. Finally it runs upward into the chest and internally links with the Heart Channel [of Hand-Shaoyin]. ”

71. 13 Huangdi said, “Why the [Heart] Channel of Hand-Shaoyin does not have special Acupoints?”

71. 14 Qibo said, “The Hand-Shaoyin is the Heart Channel. The heart is the dominator of the Five Zang-Organs and the Six Fu-Organs and the residence of the Essence and the Spirit. The heart is firm and cannot be invaded by Xie (Evil). [If pathogenic factor has] entered [the heart], the heart will be damaged. [If] the heart is damaged, the Spirit will be lost. [If] the Spirit is lost, [it will lead to] death. So when various kinds of Xie (Evil) attack the heart, they actually just attack the Collateral of the pericardium. The Collateral of the pericardium is the Channel controlled by the heart. That is why [the Heart Channel of Hand-Shaoyin] does not have special Acupoints. ”

71. 15 Huangdi said, “[The Heart Channel of Hand-] Shaoyin does not have special Acupoints. Does it mean that the heart never contracts disease?”

71. 16 Qibo said, “The externally running Channel of the heart contracts disease but the heart itself does not contract disease. 71.17 黄帝说：“持针纵舍是怎样的呢？”

71.18 岐伯说：“首先必须明确十二经的起止，皮肤的寒热，脉象的盛衰、滑涩，若脉滑而有力，表明病情日趋严重。脉细而无力，是久病气虚。脉大而涩，为痛痹；表里俱伤，气血皆败，病难治。胸腹和四肢还在发热的，是病邪未除；热势已衰退，则为病邪已除。通过诊尺肤，可以观察肌肉的坚实和脆弱，脉象的大小、滑涩，皮肤的

That is to say to use reducing techniques [when pathogenic factor is] superabundant and to use reinforcing technique [when the Healthy-Qi is] insufficient. 71. 17 Huangdi said, “How to delay and give up needling?”

71. 18 Qibo said, “[To talk about how to delay and give up needling, one] must be clear about the beginning and ending of the twelve Channels, the cold and heat of the skin as well as the strong, weak, slippery and unsmooth states of the pulse. 71.20 岐伯说：“用针的道理，要端正态度，安静心情，先查明病情的虚实，然后再进行缓急补泻的手法，用左手把握骨骼的位置，右手循穴进针，但要防止针被肉裹，泻法必须垂直下针，补法出针时，必须闭其针孔，并采用辅助行针的手法，以导引正气，邪气溃散，真气得以内守。”

71.21 黄帝说：“扞皮肤，开腠理的刺法，是怎样操作的呢？”

71. 20 Qibo said, “The method to hold the needle is to sit upright and calm down. [The doctor must] first be clear [whether the disease is of] Xu (Deficiency) or Shi (Excess) [in nature]. [Then the doctor can decide whether to insert the needle] quickly or slowly. [To perform needling, the doctor should] hold the bone [of the patient with] the left hand and stroke [the Acupoint with] the right hand. [Cares should be taken to avoid manipulating the needle with great force] lest the muscles be twined [with the needle]. [To perform] reducing [techniques, the needle should be inserted] perpendicularly; [to perform] reinforcing [techniques], the Acupoints must be immediately closed [after needle is withdrawn]. [Besides,] the supplementary needling [techniques should be used] to induce Qi (Healthy-Qi) so as to disperse Xie (Evil) and maintain Zhenqi (Genuine-Qi). ”

71. 21 Huangdi said, “How to stretch the Couli (muscular interstice)?”

71. 22 Qibo said, “Stretch the muscles [according to the texture of the skin] and insert the needle slightly into the Acupoint. [Such a way of needling will] prevent the Spirit from dissipating and eliminate Xieqi (Evil-Qi). ”

71.24 岐伯回答说：“能诊察五脏病变。”

71.25 黄帝说：“怎样诊察呢？”

71.26 岐伯说：“肺与心有邪，邪气居留在两肘；肝有邪，邪气居留在两腋窝；脾有邪，邪气居留在两髀；肾有邪，邪气居留在两腠窝。以上八虚，都是关节屈伸的枢纽，真气和血络通行汇合的要处，因此不能让邪气和恶血停留在这些部位，如有停留，就会损伤经络筋骨，使关节屈伸不利，以致发生拘挛的症状。”

71. 23 Huangdi asked Qibo, “There are eight depressions in the human body. What diseases do they reflect?”

71. 24 Qibo answered, “They reflect [diseases of] the Five Zang-Organs.”

71. 25 Huangdi said, “How to diagnose them?”

Notes:

[1] Sheng (升) is a unit of capacity. Ten spoonfuls make up one Ge (合) and Ten Ge (合) make up one Sheng (升).

[2] Li (里) is a length unit. One Li (里) is equal to 0.5 kilometer.

[3] Ge (合) is a capacity unit. Ten spoonfuls make up one Ge (合) and Ten Ge (合) make up one Sheng (升).

[4] The six pitch-pipes (六律) are divided into two categories, namely the six Yin pitch-pipes and the six Yang pitch-pipes. The six Yin pitch-pipes are Linzhong (林钟), Nanlū (南吕), Yingzhong (应钟), Dalū (大吕), Jiazhong (夹钟) and Zhonglū (仲吕). The six Yang pitch-pipes are Huangzhong (黄钟), Taicu (太簇), Guxi (姑洗), Ruibin (蕤宾), Yize (夷则) and Wushe (无射).

[5] The "ten days" refer to the Ten Heavenly Stems (十天干), including Jia (甲 the first of the Ten Heavenly Stems), Yi (乙 the second of the Ten Heavenly Stems), Bing (丙 the third of the Ten Heavenly Stems), Ding (丁 the fourth of the Ten Heavenly Stems), Wu (戊 the fifth of the Ten Heavenly Stems), Ji (己 the sixth of the Ten Heavenly Stems), Geng (庚 the seventh of the Ten Heavenly Stems), Xin (辛 the eighth of the Ten Heavenly Stems), Ren (壬 the ninth of the Ten Heavenly Stems) and Gui (癸 the tenth of the Ten Heavenly Stems).

[6] The twelve rivers include Qing (清) River in the north region of Henan (河南) Province, Wei (渭) River which is a main branch of the Yellow River (黄河) starting from Gansu (甘肃) Province and running through Shaanxi (陕西) Province into the Yellow River again in Tongguan (潼关), Hai (海) River which is a place where water from different rivers converge, Hu (湖) River which may refer to the major lakes in China, Ru (汝) River starting from Henan (河南) Province and running into the Huaihe (淮河) River, Sheng (澠) River which was believed to be the Zhangshui (漳水) River in Henan (河南) Province, Huai (淮) River starting from Henan (河南) Province and running eastward into the sea, Luo (洛) River in Shandong (山东) Province, Jiang (江) River referring to the Yangtze (长江) River, He (河) River referring to the Yellow (黄河) River, Ji (济) River which was a river in Henan (河南) Province in ancient China, and Zhang (漳) River starting from Shanxi (山西) Province and running through Hebei (河北) Province and Henan (河南) Province.

[7] The original Chinese characters for "delaying and giving up" are Zong (纵 which literally means longitudinal but actually means to delay here) and She (舍 abandon). Another explanation about these two Chinese characters is to perform reinforcing and reducing needling techniques by inserting the needle toward and against the running direction of the Channels.

能泻其阴，以防阳气虚脱，只能泻其阳，但要避免泻得太过，若阳气过度损伤，就容易导致阳气外脱而发狂，若阴阳皆脱，就会暴死或突然不知人事。

72.16 少阳之人，体质是多阳少阴，经脉小而络脉大，血深在里，气浅在表，既是多阳少阴，所以在治疗时就当充实其阴经，而泻其阳络，如果单独泻其络脉太过，就会迫使阳气很快耗散，而致中气不足，病就难治了。

72.17 阴阳和平之人，其体质阴阳之气协调，血脉和顺，在治疗时，当谨慎地诊察其阴阳的盛衰，邪正的虚实，并端详其面容的表现，以推断脏腑、经脉、气血有余或不足，然后进行调治，邪气盛的，用泻法；正气虚的，用补法，一般虚实不明显的病证，就从其本经取穴治疗。

Notes:

[1] “The upper, the lower, the left and the right” refer to the regions where the viscera are located and Qi is flowing along.

[2] Here it refers to Miuci (缪刺) which means to needle the left side if the disease is located on the right side and to needle the right side if the disease is located on the left side.

[3] The Acupoint below the Yinqiao (阴跷 Yin Heel-Channel) is Zhao-hai (照海 KI 6) and the Acupoint below the Yangqiao (阳跷 Yang Heel-Channel) is Shenmai (申脉 BL 62).

[4] Xu (Deficiency 虚) and Shi (Excess 实) here refer to pathogenic factors of different nature.

[5] Zhengxie (正邪) refers to various factors that stimulate and disturb normal physical and mental activities, such as emotional changes, hunger and overstrain.

[6] The Chinese character “Round” (圆) means flexible and smooth.

[7] The Chinese character “Square” (方) means upright, calm and unhurried.

[8] Daoyin (导引) is a kind of exercise used to cultivate health and cure disease through moving the limbs and regulating breath. Another explanation about Daoyin (导引) is that it is an exercise just for moving the limbs. For instance, Wang Bing (王冰) in the Tang Dynasty said, “Daoyin means to shake the tendons and bones and to move the limbs and joints.”

74.13 一年四季的气候变化，寒暑交替，其规律是阴盛至极则转变为阳，阳盛至极则转变为阴。阴主寒，阳主热。所以寒甚则热，热甚则寒。所以说：寒能生热，热能生寒，这是阴阳相互消长变化的缘故。所以，冬天感受了寒邪不发病，到了春天就发温热病；春天感受了风邪不发病，到了夏天就发生泄泻、痢疾病；夏天感受暑邪不发病，到了秋天就容易发疟疾；秋天感受了湿邪不发病，到了冬天就发生咳嗽。这就是由于春、夏、秋、冬四季气候不同，依次发生的疾病。”

74. 13 “[In terms of the weather] changes in the four seasons and alternate cold and heat, extreme predominance of Yin will transform into Yang and vice versa. So Yin dominates over cold and Yang dominates over heat. That is why extreme cold leads to heat and vice versa. That is why it is said that cold generates heat and heat produces cold. This is the mutual transformation of Yin and Yang. That is why it is said that attack by cold in winter leads to Danre (warm disease or seasonal febrile disease) in spring, attack by wind in spring results in diarrhea and dysentery in summer, attack by summer-heat in summer brings about Jienüe (malaria) in autumn and attack by dampness in autumn causes cough in winter. 75.41 一般刺热邪，是使邪气散于外，让身体转凉，热邪排出后，不再发热，也就无病了。针刺时应当疏通道路，放开门户，使热邪有外散的出路，病就可以痊愈。

液不出，血气强盛，肌肉坚涩。在这种情况下，即使是善于航行的人，也不能在冰中往来；善于开垦土地的人，也不能凿开冻土；善于用针的人，也不能治疗四肢厥逆的病症。如果血脉困寒而凝结，坚聚如冰冻，往来不畅，是不能立即使它柔软的，所以行舟的人，也要等到天气转温，冰化水流后，才能在水上行舟。开垦土地的人，也必须等到大地解冻，才能凿开土地。人体的血脉，必待阳气运行才可以用针。因此，治疗厥逆的病症，必须先用温熨的办法以调和其经脉，在两掌、两腋、两肘、两脚、项、脊等关节交会之处，实行熨灸，待温热之气通达各处，血脉就能正常运行了，然后再观察病情，如果脉气运行滑润流畅的，可用针刺的方法使其平复；如果脉象坚紧的，可用破坚、散结的针法，待厥逆之气下行后，就停止针刺，这就是所说的解结。

75.46 用针治病，主要在于调气，饮食所化生的精气，首先积聚在胃中，化生的营气和卫气，各有自己的运行通道，宗气留于胸中而为气海，其下行的流注于气街穴，其上行的走向呼吸道，所以当足部发生厥逆时，宗气就不能从气街循足阳明胃经下行，脉中的血液随之凝滞而停留。若不先采用火灸温熨的办法来调和气血，就不能取穴进行针刺。

75.47 用针治病，必须先观察经络的虚实。用手循经切按，弹动经脉，看到应指而动之处，然后取针刺入穴内。六经经脉调和的人，病，即使有病，也能自愈。若某一经脉出现上实下虚，经气不通的，则必定是横络的雍盛之气加之于正经，才使得经气不通，治疗时

75.46 “[The key of using] acupuncture [therapy to treat disease] lies in the regulation of Qi. The Qi ^{15]} gathers in the stomach, connects with the Ying (Nutrient-Qi) and Wei (Defensive-Qi) and flows in the due passages respectively. The Zongqi (Thoracic-Qi) stays [in the chest and forms] the sea [of Qi] . [The part of the Zongqi (Thoracic-Qi) that flows] downwards infuses into the Qijie (ST 30) ^{16]} and [the part that flows] upwards reaches the trachea. Weiqi Xing: Circulation of Weiqi (Defensive-Qi)

76.1 Huangdi asked Qibo, “I’d like to know how the Weiqi (Defensive-Qi) flows and [the place where it] goes in and comes out.”

76.2 Qibo said, “There are twelve months in a year and twelve periods in a day. Zi and Wu form the meridian while Mao and You form the parallel^[1]. In the circumference of the heaven there are twenty-eight constellations [distributed in the east, west, north and south]. In each orientation there are seven stars. Altogether there are twenty-eight stars. The Fang [star that is located in the east] and the Mao [star that is located in the west] are the latitude; the Xu [star that is located in the north] and the Zhang [star that is located in the south] are the longitude. So [the range from] the Fang [star located in the east] to the Bi [star located in the west] is Yang; [the range from] the Mao [star located in the west] to the Xin [star located in the east] is Yin. The Yang governs the day while the Yin governs the night. So the Weiqi (Defensive-Qi) flows for fifty circles in the human body within a day and a night. In the daytime it flows for twenty-five circles and in the night it flows for another twenty-five circles through the Five Zang-Organs.”

76.3 “For this reason, [the circulation of the Defensive-Qi] terminates at the Yin [phase] and Yangqi emerges from the eyes. [When] the eyes open, [the Defensive-] Qi begins to flow [from the canthus] to the head and runs along the neck in [the Bladder

76.5 黄帝曰：“卫气之在于身也，上下往来不以期，候气而刺之，奈何？”

76.6 伯高曰：“分有多少，日有长短，春夏秋冬夏，各有分理，然后常以平旦为纪，以夜尽为始。是故一日一夜，水下百刻，二十五刻者，半日之度也，常如是毋已，日入而止，随日之长短，各以为纪而刺之。谨候其时，病可与期，失时反候者，百病不治。故曰：刺实者，刺其来也；刺虚者，刺其去也。此言气存亡之时，以候虚实而刺之。是故谨候气之所在而刺之，是谓逢时。在于三阳，必候其气在于阳而刺之，病在于三阴，必候其气在阴分而刺之。

76.5 黄帝说：“卫气在人体内的循行，上下往来的时间不固定，怎样候气而针刺呢？”

76.6 伯高说：“昼夜阴阳的多少不同，有时天长，有时天短，春夏秋冬四季各个不同的节气，昼夜长短都有一定的规律，可根据日出的时间为准，此时标志着夜尽昼始，为卫气行于阳分的开始。一昼夜之中，计时的水漏下百刻，所以二十五刻恰是半天的度数，卫气就是随着时间的推移而环周不止，到了日入，白昼结束，根据日出日入来划分昼与夜，再依据昼夜长短来判断卫气的出入情况，以作为针刺候气的标准。针刺时，要候气至再下针，才可如期而愈，若失去时机，违反了候气的原则，任何疾病都不能治愈。候气而刺，对于实证，是迎其气之来而刺，属于泻法；对于虚证，是随其气之去而刺，属于补法。这是针对邪气的盛衰留去，根据疾病的虚实而针刺的。所以，谨慎地候察气的所在而进行针刺，就叫做逢时。病在三阳经，必候气在阳分时针刺；病在三阴经，必候气在阴分时针刺。

76. 5 Huangdi said, "The time that the Weiqi (Defensive-Qi) flows forward and backward in the human body is not fixed. How to await Qi for needling then?"

76. 6 Bogao said, "[In different seasons, the amount of Yin and Yang] is different and the length of the daytime varies. In spring, autumn, winter and summer, the length [of the day and night] differs respectively. However usually the dawn is taken as the beginning of the daytime and the ending of the night. Within one day and one night, the water in the clepsydra moves downward one hundred notches. Twenty-five notches are the graduations of half a day. It continues to progress and terminates at the sunset^[2]. [The acupuncturist can] take the length of the day as the criteria [to judge the condition of the Defensive-Qi] and perform acupuncture treatment. [In performing acupuncture treatment, the acupuncturist] must await the arrival of Qi so that the disease can be cured. [If such a rule is] violated, no disease can be cured. That is why it is said that [the needle must be] inserted in the direction [along which the Channel-Qi] comes for treating Shi (Excess) [Syndrome] and that [the needle must be] inserted in the direction [along which the Channel-Qi] recedes for treating Xu (Deficiency) [Syndrome]. That is why it is said that the method for awaiting the arrival of Qi before needling is called Meeting the Time [which means to abide by the time that the Defensive-Qi flows]. [If the disease occurs] in the three Yang [Channels, the acupuncturist] must wait till the Qi (Defensive-Qi) has flown to the Yang [phase] and then insert the needle; [if the disease occurs] in the three Yin [Channels, the acupuncturist] must wait till the Qi (Defensive-Qi) has flown to the Yin [phase] and then insert the needle. 77.5 还要观察风的方向，作为预测气象的依据。凡是风来自当令的方位，与季节气候相适应的，就叫做实风，主生长，养育万物；若风从当令相对的方位而来，与时令季节相反的，就是虚风，伤害人体，主摧残，对万物有害。对于这种虚风，必须注意适时回避。对养生之道有较高修养的人，就懂得及时防避虚邪贼风，就像躲避箭矢石

78.1 Huangdi said, “I have listened to your explanation of the Nine Needles. It’s really profound and abstruse. But I still have not fully understood it. May I ask you how [the theory of] the Nine Needles was established and why they have different names?”

78.2 Qibo said, “The Nine Needles [were developed according to] the law of the heaven and the earth. [The great number of the heaven and the earth] begins with one and ends with nine. [The Nine Needles in fact correspond to different natural phenomena.] That is why it is said that the first [needle] corresponds to the heaven, the second to the earth, the third to human beings, the fourth to the seasons, the fifth to the [five] sounds^[1], the sixth to the [six odd-numbered] pitch-pipes^[2], the seventh to the [seven] stars, the eighth to the winds [from the eight directions] and the ninth to the nine geographical divisions.”

78.3 Huangdi said, “Why the needles correspond to the number of nine?”

之数，九针正与此数相应。

78.5 一数比象于天。天属阳。在人体五脏中，肺主呼吸，外与天气相应。肺位最高，为五脏六腑的华盖。肺外合皮毛，皮毛浅在体表，属于阳分。因此针刺治疗时所用之针，其头必大，针尖锐利，适于浅刺而不能深刺，用于治疗邪在皮肤的病证，以开泄阳气，解表退热。

78.6 二数比象于地。在人体应于脾，脾属土，主肌肉。因此针刺治疗时所用之针，其身圆直，如竹管状，针尖呈卵圆形，适用于治疗邪在肌肉的病证，刺时不得损伤分肉，分肉受伤则易使脾气衰竭。

78.7 三数比象于人。人能维持生命，有赖于血脉输给营养。所以为了适应治疗血脉的病证，所用之针，其尖圆而钝，可以按压穴位，疏通血脉，引导正气得以充实，使邪气自然外出。

78.8 四数比象于四时。四时八方的风邪侵入人体的经络中，能使血脉留滞瘀结，而渐成顽固性的病证。因此刺治时，必用锋针，

number of] needles correspond to such a number. ”

78.5 “[The number of] one symbolizes the heaven and the heaven pertains to Yang. The one among the Five Zang-Organs to correspond to the heaven is the lung. The lung is the canopy of the Five Zang-Organs and the Six Fu-Organs. The lung is closely related to the skin [which pertains to] Yang in the human body. That is why [the first] needle, [known as Chanzhen (sagittate needle)], is made [in such a way that] its head is big and its tip is sharp. [This needle, usually used to treat diseases due to invasion of pathogenic factors into the skin,] is applicable to shallow needling and draining of Yangqi. ”

78.6 “[The number of] two symbolizes the earth. The part in the human body to correspond to the earth is muscle. [1] Five sounds (五音) include Jiao (角), Zhi (徵), Gong (宫), Shang (商) and Yu (羽).

[2] Six pitch-pipes (六律) are divided into two categories, namely six Yin pitch-pipes and six Yang pitch-pipes. The six Yin pitch-pipes are Linzhong (林钟), Nanlū(南吕), Yingzhong (应钟), Dalū(大吕), Jiazhong (夹钟) and Zhonglū(仲吕). The six Yang pitch-pipes are Huangzhong (黄钟), Taicu (太簇), Guxi (姑洗), Ruibin (蕤宾), Yize (夷则) and Wushe (无射).

[3] Huangzhong (黄钟), a bamboo musical instrument used in ancient times to correct musical notes, was nine Cun in length and over each Cun nine grains of black broomcorn millet were fixated.

[4] Daoyin (导引) is a kind of exercise used to cultivate health and cure disease through moving the limbs and regulating breath. Another explanation about Daoyin (导引) is that it is an exercise just for moving the limbs. For instance, Wang Bing (王冰) in the Tang Dynasty said, “Daoyin (导引) means to shake the tendons and bones and to move the limbs and joints. ”

[5] The five kinds of mergence (五并) refer to the pathological changes in which the Essence of the Five Zang-Organs merges into one single Zang-Organ.

79.2 岐伯说：“邪气侵入风府后，就沿着脊柱下行。人体卫气循行一日一夜后总会于风府，然后每日循脊柱向下行一节，因此疟疾发作的时间也就一天天向后推迟。由于邪气先侵入脊背，每当卫气行于风府时，则腠理开泄，邪气乘隙侵入，与卫气相搏而发为疟病。所以疟疾发作的时间，常常向后推迟。卫气运行至风府穴后，每日沿脊柱向下运行一节，经过二十一日，就下行到尾骶部，第二十二日就进入脊内，流注于伏冲之脉，行至九日，上出于左右两个缺盆的中间，

Suilu Lun: Discussion on Abnormal Wind and Rain in a Year

79. 1 Huangdi asked Qibo, “The Canon says that attack by heat in summer will cause malaria in autumn. [But] the attack of malaria follows a certain schedule. What is the reason?”

79. 2 Qibo replied, “[When] Xie (Evil) invades into Fengfu (GV 16), it moves downward along the spine. [When flowing] in the daytime and at night [in the human body], the Weiqi (Defensive-Qi) often converges over Fengfu (GV 16). The next day [after its convergence over Fengfu (GV 16), the Defensive-Qi] moves downward one vertebra each day [along the spine]. That is why the attack [of malaria] is delayed day after day. This is [due to the fact that the pathogenic factor] first invades the spine and back. [Each time when the Defensive-Qi] flows to Fengfu (GV 16), the Couli (muscular interstice) opens. [When] the Couli (muscular interstice) has opened, Xieqi (Evil-Qi) enters [the body through it]. [When] Xieqi (Evil-Qi) has entered [the body, malaria begins] to attack. This is the reason why the attack of [malaria] is gradually delayed. [When] the Weiqi (Defensive-Qi) flows to Fengfu (GV 16), [it moves] down one segment each day. [After] twenty-one days, it moves to the sacral region. On the twenty-second day, it enters the spine and infuses into the Chongmai (Thoroughfare Vessel) [that runs inside the spine]. [After] nine more days [of flowing, it] emerges from the middle between the supraclavicular fossae. [Since] the Qi (Defensive-Qi) moves upwards [during this period of time], the

79.4 岐伯曰：“风府无常，卫气之所应，必开其腠理，气之所舍节，则其府也。”

79.5 黄帝曰：“善。夫风之与疟也，相与同类，而风常在，而疟特以时休，何也？”

79.3 黄帝说：“每当卫气至于风府时，腠理就开泄，腠理开泄则邪气乘虚侵入。卫气运行时，每日沿脊柱下行一节，有时并不在风府穴处，为什么疟疾也仍会发作呢？”

79.4 岐伯说：“风邪侵入人体并没有固定的部位，只要卫气运行到邪气所在之处，就必定使腠理开泄，所以凡是邪气留滞的地方，就是发病的所在。”

79.5 黄帝说：“好。感受风邪所致的病与疟疾相似而属同类，但是为什么感受风邪的病，其症状常常持续存在，而疟疾的发作却有间歇呢？”

79.6 岐伯说：“这是因为风邪常常留积在肌表，而疟邪沿着经

attack of the disease occurs earlier day by day. [When the pathogenic factor has] entered the Five Zang-Organs and transversely affected the Moyuan (the mesentery between the thorax, abdomen and the viscera), [it indicates that] the Qi (pathogenic factor) has deeply penetrated through [the body] and furthered its invasion. [That is why it] cannot attack every day. [It can only launch an] attack the next day [when it has] accumulated [enough energy]. ”

79.3 Huangdi said, “Each time when the Weiqi (Defensive-Qi) flows to Fengfu (GV 16) the Couli (muscular interstice) opens. [When] the Couli (muscular interstice) has opened, Xie (Evil) will [take the advantage to] invade [the body through it]. The Weiqi (Defensive-Qi) flows downward [along the spine] one segment each day. [That is to say it] does not reach Fengfu (GV 16) everyday. [But why attack of malaria] still takes place?”

79.4 Qibo said, “Fengfu (Wind-Palace) actually does not have a fixed location. [Whenever] the Weiqi (Defensive-Qi) has reached a spinal vertebra, the Couli (muscular interstice) over it must be opened and the Qi (pathogenic factor) [will inevitably take the advantage] to get into [the body through it]. [This vertebra will] then become the Palace [of wind]. ”

79.5 Huangdi said, “Good! [Pathogenic] wind and [the pathogenic factor of] malaria are similar to each other in nature. [The manifestations of the disease caused by pathogenic] wind always exist. [But why the attack of] malaria takes place intermittently?”

79.6 Qibo said, “[Because pathogenic] wind often remains in the place [that it has attacked, but the pathogenic factor of]

79.9 少师答曰：“不然。贼风邪气之中人也，不得以时，然必因其开也，其入深，其内极病，其病人也，卒暴。因其闭也，其入浅以留，其病也，徐以迟。”

79.8 黄帝向少师问道：“听说四季中的八风对人体的伤害，本来就有寒暑气候的不同。气候寒冷时，皮肤就致密而腠理闭塞；气候炎热时，皮肤就弛缓而腠理开泄。在这种情况下，虚邪贼风是乘虚侵入人体呢？还是必须遇到四时八节反常的气候才会伤人呢？”

79.9 少师回答说：“不完全是这样。虚邪贼风伤人，不一定要等到特定的时期，但必须在腠理开泄时乘虚侵入人体。邪气侵入越深，病情就越严重，发病也就越急暴。若在腠理闭塞时，即使邪气侵入，也只能停留在浅表部位，发病也较迟缓。”

[When it is] cold, the skin becomes tense and the Couli (muscular interstice) is closed; [when it is] hot, the skin becomes loose and the Couli (muscular interstice) becomes open. Is this the condition under which the Zeifeng (Thief-Wind) and Xieqi (Evil-Qi) invade [the body]? Or [does the pathogenic factor] attack the human body only when Xuxie (Deficiency-Evil) from the eight orientations has occurred?”

79. 9 Shaoshi answered, “Not always. [When] attacking the human body, Zeifeng (Thief-Wind) and Xieqi (Evil-Qi) do not follow a fixed schedule, but must [take the advantage of the time when the muscular interstice is] open. [Their invasion] into the body is usually deep and the disease caused is serious and acute. [When the muscular interstice is] closed, the invasion [of the pathogenic factor into the body is usually] shallow and [the occurrence of] the disease is slow. ”

79. 10 Huangdi said, “[Some people can well] adapt to [the changes of] cold and warmth and the Couli (muscular interstice) is not open, [but they] sometimes suddenly fall ill. What is the reason?”

79.14 黄帝说：“有人突然死亡或突然生病，是什么原因呢？”

79.15 少师回答说：“本来就虚弱的人，又遇到三虚的自然环境，就会出现暴死、暴病的情况。如果遇到三实的自然环境，邪气就不能伤人了。”

open or closed slowly or promptly. ”

79. 12 Huangdi said, “Could you explain it for me?”

79. 13 Shaoshi said, “The human body is closely related to the heaven and the earth and corresponds to the sun and the moon. So when the moon is full, the sea in the west will rise greatly. [And accordingly in the human body,] the blood and Qi will be abundant, the muscles will be substantial, the skin will be compact, the hair and chaetae will be elastic, the Couli (muscular interstice) will be closed like smoky dust. Under such a condition, Zeifeng (Thief-Wind) may invade the body, but its invasion is shallow and cannot be deep. When the moon wanes, the sea in the east will rise greatly. [And accordingly in the human body,] Qi and blood will be deficient, the Weiqi (Defensive-Qi) will decline, the body may appear physically unchanged, but the muscles will be emaciated, the skin will become loose, the Couli (muscular interstice) will be open, the hair and chaetae will be dry, the texture of the muscle will be sparse like exfoliation of smoky dust. When Zeifeng (Thief-Wind) invades the body under such a condition, the invasion will be deep and the disease caused will be acute. ”

79. 14 Huangdi said, “Sometimes people may suddenly die or suddenly fall ill. What is the reason?”

79. 15 Shaoshi answered, “The cause of sudden illness and sudden death is Triple-Xu (Triple-Deficiency) . [If one stays in the environment] with Triple-Shi (Triple-Excess), Xie (Evil) cannot impair him. ”

79. 16 Huangdi said, “I’d like to know what is Triple-Xu (Triple-Deficiency). ”

79.19 少师曰：“逢年之盛，遇月之满，得时之和，虽有贼风邪气，不能危之也。”

79. 20 Huangdi said, “What an excellent explanation! What a great theory! Please allow me to store it in the Golden Cabinet and name it Triple-Shi (Triple-Excess). But this is just the discussion [about the occurrence of diseases in] a single person.”

79. 21 Huangdi said, “I want to know why many people fall ill at the same time in a year?”

79. 22 Shaoshi said, “This has something to do with [the pathogenic factors from] the eight orientations.”

79. 23 Huangdi said, “How to diagnose it then?”

大惑论第八十

【原文】

80.1 黄帝问于岐伯曰：“余尝上于清冷之台，中阶而顾，匍匐而前，则惑。余私异之，窃内怪之，独瞑独视，安心定气，久而不解。独博独眩，披发长跪，俛而视之，后久之不已也。卒然自上，何气使然？”

80.2 岐伯对曰：“五脏六腑之精气，皆上注于目而为之精。精之窠为眼，骨之精为瞳子，筋之精为黑眼，血之精为络，其窠气之精为白眼，肌肉之精为约束，裹撷筋骨血气之精而与脉并为系，上属于脑，后出于项中。故邪中于项，因逢其身之虚，其入深，则随眼系以

80.2 岐伯回答说：“五脏六腑的精气都上注于目，从而产生精明视物的作用。所以眼窝内精气的结晶，便形成了眼睛。其中骨之精注于瞳子；筋之精注于黑眼，血之精注于血络；气之精注于白眼；肌肉之精注于眼胞。上下眼胞包裹着筋、骨、血、气等精气，与脉络合并而形成目系，它上行联属于脑，后出于项部中间。当邪袭于项，适逢人的身体虚弱，邪气就沿着目系深入于脑，从而发生头昏脑转，引

Dahuo Lun: Discussion on Great Perplexity

80. 1 Huangdi asked Qibo, “I once climbed the Qingling (cool) Platform. [When approaching] to the middle stage, [I] looked around, scrambled up and felt dim [in vision] . I felt strange, closed my eyes for a while] and then opened them to see. [I tried] to tranquilize my mind and smooth my breath. [But] after a long time it was not relieved [and I still] felt dizzy. So [I] loosened my hair, kneeled down and looked straight downwards for a long time, [it was] still not relieved. [But] suddenly it disappeared automatically. What was the cause then?”

80. 2 Qibo answered, “The Jingqi (Essence-Qi) of the Five Zang-Organs and the Six Fu-Organs all flow upwards into the eyes [to enable the eyes] to see. [The place where] the Jing (Essence) accumulates is the eye. The Jing (Essence) of the kidney infuses into the pupil [of the eye]; the Jing (Essence) of the tendons infuses into the black part of the eye; the Jing (Essence) of the blood infuses into the Collaterals [of the eye]; the Jing (Essence) of the Qi infuses into the white part of the eye; the Jing (Essence) of the muscles infuses into the eyelids [that] protect the Jing (Essence) of the tendons, bones, blood and Qi and connect with the Channels [to form the eye] system [which] connects with the brain in the upper and emerges from the middle of the neck at the back. So [when] Xie (Evil) attacks the neck because of the weakness of the body, it invades deep [into the body] and enters the brain along the eye system. [When the pathogenic factor has] entered the brain, [it will] disturb the brain. [When] the brain is disturbed, [it will] tighten the eye system. [When] the eye system is tightened, the eye will become blurred. [When] the eye is distorted, what it has seen does not agree with the actual image, [indicating that] the Jing (Essence) is dispersed. [When] the Jing (Essence) is dispersed, double vision will be caused. Double vision means to see one thing as two. The eyes are [the places where] the Jing (Essence) of the Five Zang-Organs and the Six Fu-Organs [has gathered]. [The eyes are also the regions that] the Ying (Nutrient-Qi), the Wei (Defensive-Qi), the Hun (Ethereal-Soul) and the Po (Corporeal-Soul) usually run through and the Shenqi (Spirit-Qi) often infuses into. That is why overstrain of Shen (Spirit) disperses the Hun (Ethereal-Soul) and the Po (Corporeal-Soul) and causes confusion of the mind. So the pupil and the black part of the eye pertain to Yin while the white part of the eye and the blood vessel [in the canthus] pertain to Yang. Thus harmony between Yin and Yang [is prerequisite to] the normal vision [of the eyes]. The eyes are controlled by the heart and the heart houses the Shen (Spirit). For this reason, disorder of the Shen (Spirit) and the Jing (Essence) [makes it] difficult to accumulate [in the eyes]. [Under such a condition,] sudden seeing strange phenomena will lead to dispersion of the Jing (Essence), Shen (Spirit), Hun (Ethereal-Soul) and Po (Corporeal-Soul). That is why dizziness is caused. ”

80.5 黄帝曰：“人之善忘者，何气使然？”

80.6 岐伯曰：“上气不足，下气有余，肠胃实而心肺虚。虚则营卫留于下，久之不以时上，故善忘也。”

80.7 黄帝曰：“人之善饥而不嗜食者，何气使然？”

苑去，没有一次不发生眩惑的，一离开那里便又恢复了正常，难道我只有到东苑去才劳神过度吗？为什么会出现这种情况呢？”

80.4 岐伯说：“不是这样的。在一定场合中，心里虽有所好，但遇到异常情景，精神上感到厌恶，突然间喜恶交加，会使精神散乱，产生视觉错乱，使人感到眩惑。一旦离开，精神就得以转移，因此而恢复正常状态。这种情况轻的称为‘迷’，重的称为‘惑’。”

80.5 黄帝说：“有的人经常健忘，是什么原因造成的呢？”

80.6 岐伯说：“由于人的上部之气不足，下部之气有余，也就是肠胃气充实而心肺气虚弱。心肺气虚，则营卫之气稽留在下部，久而不能按时上行，所以发生健忘。”

80.7 黄帝说：“有的人易饥饿但又不想吃东西，这是什么原因造成的呢？”

80.8 岐伯说：“饮食物所化生之精气并于脾，热气积留于胃，胃热太盛则消化力增强，所以容易饥饿。由于胃气上逆，胃脘阻塞不通，所以不想进食。”

only overstrain the Shen (Spirit) when I go to the East Garden? Why there appears such a strange phenomenon?"

80. 4 Qibo said, "Not necessarily. [When one goes to a place to visit, his] heart may like to see something while his Shen (Spirit) may dislike to meet it. Sudden interaction between [what one's heart] likes and [what one's Spirit] dislikes disturbs the Jingqi (Essence-Qi) and distorts the vision. That is why [he feels] dizzy. [But when he] leaves [the place, he becomes] normal again. [If it is] light, [it is] called confusion; [if it is] severe, [it is] called dizziness."

80. 5 Huangdi said, "What is the cause of amnesia?"

80. 6 Qibo said, "Insufficiency of Qi in the upper and superabundance of Qi in the lower indicate Xu (Deficiency) of the heart and the lung and Shi (Excess) of the intestines and the stomach. (Deficiency) [of the Qi in the heart and the lung leads to] retention of the Ying (Nutrient-Qi) and the Wei (Defensive-Qi) in the lower [part of the body]. [The Nutrient-Qi and the Defensive-Qi retain in the lower part of the body] for a long time and cannot flow upwards. That is why [the person is] frequently forgetful."

80. 7 Huangdi said, "A person may frequently feel hungry but does not want to eat. What is the reason?"

80. 8 Qibo said, "Jingqi (Essence-Qi) infuses into the spleen and Reqi (Heat-Qi) remains in the stomach. [When there is] heat in the stomach, food is quickly digested. That is why [the person] frequently feels hungry. [At the same time] Stomach-Qi moves adversely upwards and produces cold in the stomach. That is why [the person] does not want to eat."

The blood in the vessels, the Ying (Nutrient-Qi) and the Wei (Defensive-Qi) flow incessantly inside the body, corresponding to the constellations in the heaven and the rivers on the earth. [When] Hanxie (Cold-Evil) invades the Channels and Collaterals, the blood [will flow] unsmoothly. [If] the blood [flows] unsmoothly, [it will become] stagnated. 疽，叫做‘脑烁’。患此病的人神色郁郁不乐，项部疼痛如针刺。如果再出现心中烦躁的症状，便是不治之症。

81.7 发于肩臂部的痈，叫做‘疵痈’，颜色赤黑，应赶快治疗。此痈使人汗出至足，但不伤害五脏，所以在痈发后的四、五日，可速用艾灸治疗。

81.8 发于腋下色赤而坚硬的痈，叫做‘米疽’，可用砭石治疗，砭石要细而长，稀疏地砭刺患部，再涂上豕膏，六天后就可痊愈，不必包扎。如果痈肿坚硬而不易溃破，就为马刀挟癭，应迅速治疗。

81.9 发于胸部的疽，叫做‘井疽’，形状如大豆，在初起的三、四天里，如果不及时治疗，邪毒就会下移入腹，成为不治之症，七天内人就会死亡。

81.10 发于胸前两侧的疽，叫做‘甘疽’，颜色发青，形状如谷实和瓜蒌，常伴有恶寒发热的症状，应迅速治疗，消除寒热。如不及时治疗，患者十年之后死亡，死后才会溃破出脓。

[If the blood] cannot circulate, the Weiqi (Defensive-Qi) will also be difficult to flow. [Consequently it will be] stagnated inside and cannot move. That is why there is heat. [If] such serious heat continues to develop, the muscles will be decayed and the decayed muscles will be suppurated. Notes:

[1] Xigu (溪谷): Xi (溪) refers to the small convergence between the muscles and Gu (谷) refers to the large convergence between the muscles. These small and large convergences are the places where the Yingqi (营气 Nutrient-Qi), Wei qi (卫气 Defensive-Qi), Qi, blood and body fluid converge.

[2] The original Chinese characters for this part are Jiu (灸 moxibustion) and Zhi (之 it). Literally these two Chinese characters mean that this carbuncle should be treated by moxibustion. But according to the context Jiu (灸 moxibustion) should be Jiu (久 long). Maybe the original Chinese character was Jiu (久 long), later on it was wrongly copied as Jiu (灸 moxibustion) in history.

[3] Sheng (升) is a unit of weight and is somewhat different from litre.

[4] Dou (斗) is a unit of weight and is somewhat different from decalitre.

[5] Liyong (厉癰): Zhang Zhicong (张志聪) said, “This carbuncle is caused by invasion of pathogenic cold into the Stomach Channel of Foot-Yangming which starts from the Acupoint of Lidui (厉兑 ST 45).” This carbuncle occurs at the side of the foot. That is why it is called Liyong (厉癰) which means that the carbuncle is located near the Lidui (厉兑 ST 45) Acupoint.

黄帝八十一难经

【原文】

1.1 一难曰：十二经皆有动脉，独取寸口，以决五脏六腑死生吉凶之法，何谓也？

1.2 然：寸口者，脉之大会，手太阴之脉动也。人一呼脉行三寸，一吸脉行三寸，呼吸定息，脉行六寸，人一日一夜，凡一万三千五百息，脉行五十度，周于身，漏水下百刻，荣卫行阳二十五度，行阴亦二十五度，为一周也，故五十度复会于手太阴。寸口者，五脏六腑之所终始，故法取于寸口也。

2.1 二难曰：脉有尺寸，何谓也？

【今译】

1.1 第一难说：十二经脉都有动脉，但却按寸口的动脉来判断五脏六腑疾病的轻重和预后。这是什么道理呢？

1.2 是这样的：寸口部的动脉，是十二经脉之气汇聚之处，是手太阴肺经的脉动。正常人一呼脉气运行三寸，一吸脉气也运行三寸，一呼一吸，脉气共行六寸。正常人在一昼夜的时间内，共呼吸一万三千五百次，脉气在人身运行五十周次，环绕于全身，漏壶滴水下百刻，营卫之气在白昼循行于全身二十五次，在夜晚也循行于全身二十五次，完成一周次的循行。所以循行五十周次重新汇合于手太阴肺经的寸口部位。因为寸口是五脏六腑气血循环运行的起止部位，因此诊脉时仅取寸口就可以了。

2.1 第二难说：寸口部位的脉有尺部和寸部。这是什么道理呢？

Huangdi Bashiyi Nanjing: Yellow Emperor's Canon on Eighty-one Difficult Issues

1. 1 The first issue: All the twelve Channels have corresponding pulsations, but only [the radial artery over] Cunkou (wrist) is pressed to decide prognosis [of the diseases of] the Five Zang-Organs and the Six Fu-Organs. What is the reason?

1. 2 This is the answer: The Cunkou (radial artery over the wrist) [is the place where] all the Channels converge. [It is also] the pulsation of [the Lung Channel of] Hand-Taiyin. [The blood and Qi in] the Channel flow for three Cun by one exhalation and another three Cun by one inhalation. [Thus the blood and Qi in] the Channel flow for six Cun altogether in one respiration. [A person] breathes about 13500 times one day and one night, [during which the blood and Qi in] the Channels flow around the body for 50 times and water in the clepsydra descends 100 notches. [At the same time,] the Ying (Nutrient-Qi) and the Wei (Defensive-Qi) flow for 25 times in the Yang [phase] and 25 times in the Yin [phase], completing one circle. That is why after 50 times [of circulation, the Nutrient-Qi and the Defensive-Qi] re-converge at [the Lung Channel of] Hand-Taiyin. The Cunkou [is the place where the blood and Qi in] the Five Zang-Organs and the Six Fu-Organs begin and terminate [their circulation]. That is why the Cunkou alone is selected [as the place to examine the pulse].

2. 1 The second issue: The pulse [over Cunkou is divided into] Chi and Cun. What does it mean?

【原文】

2.2 然：尺寸者，脉之大要会也。从关至尺是尺内，阴之所治也，从关至鱼际是寸口内，阳之所治也。故分寸为尺，分尺为寸。故阴得尺内一寸，阳得寸内九分，尺寸终始一寸九分，故曰尺寸也。

3.1 三难曰：脉有太过，有不及，有阴阳相乘，有覆有溢，有关有格，何谓也？

3.2 然：关之前者，阳之动也，脉当见九分而浮，过者，法曰太过；减者，法曰不及。遂上鱼为溢，为外关内格，此阴乘之脉也。

【今译】

2.2 是这样的：从脉的尺部到寸部，是脉气汇合的主要部位。从关部到尺泽是尺部脉的范围，为阴所主；从关部到鱼际是寸部脉的范围，为阳所主。所以关上分去一寸，余者为尺脉；关下分去一尺，余者为寸脉。在属阴的部位取一寸，在属阳的部位取九分，从寸部到尺部的起止共一寸九分，所以叫做尺寸。

3.1 第三难说：脉象有太过，有不及，有阴阳之脉相乘，有下覆、上溢之脉，有关、格之脉。这是什么道理呢？

3.2 是这样的：关部前的寸脉，属于阳的脉动之处，脉有九分长，且呈浮象。超过九分长的脉，叫做太过；不足九分长的脉，叫做不及；向上延长到鱼际部的脉象，称为溢脉；当阳气被关闭于外而阴气被格拒于内时，其脉就是阴盛乘阳之脉。

2. 2 This is the answer: [The place from] the Chi to Cun [is the region where the Channel-Qi of all] the Channels converge. [The place] from Guan to Chi is the range of the Chi [which is] governed by Yin. [The place] from Guan to Yuji (thenar eminence) is the range of Cun [which is] governed by Yang. So [after] the separation of one Cun [from the division above the Guan region, the remaining part] is the Chi [region]; [after] the separation of one Cun [from the division below the Guan region, the remaining part] is the Cun [region]. So the Yin [range] takes one Cun from the Chi [region] and the Yang [range] takes nine Fen from the Cun [region]. Hence [the distance from] the beginning to the ending [points] of the Chi [region] and the Cun [region] is one Cun and nine Fen. That is why [this region is] called Chi and Cun.

3. 1 The third issue: [The condition of] the pulse [is characterized by] Shi (Excess) or Xu (Deficiency), alternation between the Yin [pulse] and Yang [pulse], [fluctuation between] sinking [pulse] and overflowing [pulse as well as the appearance of] closing [pulse] and rejecting [pulse]. What is the reason?

3. 2 This is the answer: [The pulse] anterior to the Guan [region] is the pulsation of the Yang [Channels]. The pulse [in this region] is nine Fen [in length] and is floating. [If it is] longer [than such a length, it is] called Taiguo (excessively long); [if it is] shorter [than such a length, it is] called Buji (not long enough). [If the pulse] extends to the thenar eminence, [it is called] overflowing [pulse caused by Yangqi that is] closed externally and [Yinqi that is] rejected internally. This is the pulse [marked by] Yin subjugating [Yang].

【原文】

3.3 关之后者，阴之动也，脉当见一寸而沉。过者，法曰太过；减者，法曰不及。遂入尺为覆，为内关外格，此阳乘之脉也，故曰覆溢，是其真脏之脉，人不病而死也。

4.1 四难曰：脉有阴阳之法，何谓也？

4.2 然：呼出心与肺，吸入肾与肝，呼吸之间，脾受谷味也，其脉在中。浮者阳也，沉者阴也，故曰阴阳也。

4.3 心肺俱浮，何以别之？

4.4 然：浮而大散者心也；浮而短涩者肺也。

【今译】

3.3 关脉后的，是阴脉搏动之处，脉长一寸且显沉象。超过一寸的，叫做太过之脉；不足一寸的，叫做不及之脉；当阳气被关闭于内而阴气被格阻于外时，其脉就是阳盛乘阴之脉象。所以说覆脉和溢脉，都是真脏之脉，病人虽没有明显症状，但却会死亡。

4.1 第四难说：脉象有阴阳属性的辨别方法。这是怎么回事呢？

4.2 是这样的：呼气与心和肺有关，吸气与肝和肾有关，在呼气和吸气的过程中，脾运化水谷精微，其脉动就表现在其中了。浮脉为阳，沉脉属阴，所以说脉象有阴阳属性的不同。

4.3 心和肺的脉都是浮脉，应该怎样区分呢？

4.4 是这样的：脉浮大而散的，是心脉；脉浮而短涩的，是肺脉。

3.3 [The pulse] posterior to the Guan [region] is the pulsation of the Yin [Channels]. [The pulse should be] one Cun [in length and appears] deep. [If the pulse is] longer [than such a length, it is] called Taiguo (excessively long); [if it is] shorter [than such a length, it is] called Buji (not long enough). [If the pulse] descends to the Chi [region, it is called] sinking [pulse caused by Yangqi that is] closed externally and [Yinqi that is] rejected internally. This is the pulse [marked by] Yang subjugating [Yin]. That is why it is called Fu (sinking) [pulse] and Yi (overflowing) [pulse]. [These two states of pulse] are all [the so-called] Genuine Visceral Pulses. [If such states of pulse appear, though] the patient does not show any obvious symptoms, he will die.

4.1 The fourth issue: There are Yin and Yang methods to diagnose the pulse. What is the reason?

4.2 This is the answer: [The organs responsible for] breathing out are the heart and the lung [and the organs responsible for] breathing in are the kidney and the liver. During the activity of breath, the spleen receives food nutrients and its pulse is manifested in it. The floating [pulse pertains to] Yang while the sinking [pulse pertains to] Yin. That is why it is said [that there are] Yin and Yang [methods in examining the pulse].

4.3 [If the pulse of] the heart and the lung are all floating, how to differentiate them?

4.4 This is the answer: [If the pulse is] floating, big and scattered, [it is the pulse of] the heart; [if the pulse is] floating, short and unsmooth, [it is the pulse of] the lung.

【原文】

4.5 肾肝俱沉，何以别之？

4.6 然：牢而长者肝也；按之濡，举指来实者肾也。脾者中州，故其脉在中，是阴阳之法也。

4.7 脉有一阴一阳，一阴二阳，一阴三阳，有一阳一阴，一阳二阴，一阳三阴。如此之言，寸口有六脉俱动耶？

4.8 然：此言者，非有六脉俱动也，谓浮、沉、长、短、滑，涩也。浮者阳也，滑者阳也，长者阳也；沉者阴也，短者阴也，涩者阴也。所谓一阴一阳者，谓脉来沉而滑也，一阴二阳者，谓脉来沉滑而长也，一阴三阳者，谓脉来浮滑而长，时一沉也；所谓一阳一阴者，

【今译】

4.5 肾和肝的脉都是沉脉，应该如何区分呢？

4.6 是这样的：脉牢而长的，是肝脉；脉按之柔软，但举指轻按有力的，是肾脉。脾位于中焦，所以其脉和缓适中。这就是区别脉象阴阳属性的方法。

4.7 脉象中有一阴一阳脉，一阴二阳脉，一阴三阳脉；又有一阳一阴脉，一阳二阴脉；一阳三阴脉。按照这样的说法，难道寸口有六种脉象在一起搏动吗？

4.8 是这样的：这样说并不是意味着有六种脉象一起搏动，而是说脉象有浮、沉、长、短、滑、涩六种变化。浮脉是阳脉，滑脉是阳脉，长脉是阳脉；沉脉是阴脉，短脉是阴脉，涩脉是阴脉。所谓的一阴一阳脉，是指脉来沉滑；所谓一阴二阳脉，指脉来沉滑而长；所谓一阴三阳脉，指脉来浮滑而长，时有沉象；所谓一阳一阴脉，是指脉

4.5 [If the pulses of] the kidney and the liver are all sinking, how to differentiate them?

4.6 This is the answer: [If it is] firm and long, [it is the pulse of] the liver; [if it is] soft [when] pressed [heavily] and forceful [when] pressed lightly, [it is the pulse of] the kidney. The spleen is located in the middle region. That is why its pulse [is smooth and balanced, neither floating nor sinking, just maintaining at] the intermediate [level]. These are the methods [to differentiate] the Yin or Yang [nature of pulses].

4.7 [The states of] the pulse [are characterized by either] one Yin and one Yang, or one Yin and two Yang, or one Yin and three Yang, or one Yang and one Yin, or one Yang and two Yin, or one Yang and three Yin. According to such a differentiation, are there six pulses pulsating at the same time over the Cunkou region?

4.8 This is the answer: It does mean that there are six pulses pulsating at the same time. It just describes the floating, sinking, long, short, slippery and unsmooth [states of the pulse]. The floating [pulse] is the Yang [pulse]; the slippery [pulse] is the Yang [pulse]; and the long [pulse] is also the Yang [pulse]. The sinking [pulse] is the Yin [pulse]; the short [pulse] is the Yin [pulse]; and the unsmooth [pulse] is the Yin [pulse]. The so-called one Yin and one Yang means that the pulse is sinking and slippery; [the so-called] one Yin and two Yang means that the pulse is sinking, slippery and long; [the so-called] one Yin and three Yang means that the pulse is floating, slippery, long and occasionally sinking; [the so-called] one Yang and one Yin means that the pulse is floating and unsmooth; [the so-called] one

来浮而涩；所谓一阳二阴脉，指脉来长而沉涩；所谓一阳三阴脉，指脉来沉涩而短，时有浮象。根据各经相应部位的脉象变化，可判断疾病的逆和顺。

5.1 第五难说：诊脉时指法有轻重，应如何掌握呢？

5.2 是这样的：开始按脉时，指力如三粒豆的重量，轻按在皮毛上即可触到脉，这就是肺脉之象。指力如六粒豆的重量，按至血脉方可触到脉，这就是心脉之象。指力如九粒豆的重量，按至肌肉方可触到脉，这就是脾脉之象。指力如十二粒豆的重量，按至与筋相平方可触到脉，这就是肝脉之象。重按至骨，手指上举时脉来急迫的，这就是肾脉之象。所以说按脉的指力有轻有重。

6.1 第六难说：脉象变化有阴盛阳虚、阳盛阴虚之不同，这是什么道理呢？

Yang and two Yin means that the pulse is long, sinking and unsmooth; [the so-called] one Yang and three Yin means that the pulse is sinking, unsmooth, short and occasionally floating. [Examination should focus on the changes of the pulses corresponding to] each Channel [and viscus] to decide the favorable and unfavorable prognosis of diseases.

5.1 The fifth issue: The pulse [can be pressed] heavily and lightly. What is the reason?

5.2 This is the answer: At the beginning of taking the pulse, [the fingers should press it lightly just as] three beans [put on the pulse] . [The pulse that can be felt when the fingers have just] touched the skin is the lung [pulse]. [The pulse that can be felt when the fingers have pressed with] the weight of six beans till the blood vessel is sensible is the heart [pulse]. [The pulse that can be felt when the fingers have pressed with] the weight of nine beans till the muscles are already sensible is the spleen [pulse]. [The pulse that can be felt when the fingers have pressed with] the weight of twelve beans till the tendons are sensible is the liver [pulse] . [The pulse that can be felt when the fingers have] pressed heavily to the bone and beats swiftly when the fingers have lifted up is the kidney [pulse]. That is why it is said [that there is a difference in] heavy and light [pressing of the pulse].

6.1 The sixth issue: The pulse [indicates] either superabundance of Yin and deficiency of Yang or superabundance of Yang and deficiency of Yin. What is the reason?

反映的病理变化是阴盛阳虚。沉取弱而细小的脉象和浮取实而洪大的脉象，所反映的病理变化就是阳盛阴虚。这就是脉象阴阳虚实的区分方法。

7.1 第七难说：医经上说，少阳时令的脉象特点是忽小忽大，忽短忽长；阳明时令的脉象特点是浮大而短；太阳时令的脉象特点是洪大而长；太阴时令的脉象特点是紧大而长；少阴时令的脉象特点是紧细而微；厥阴时令的脉象特点是沉短而敦实。这六种脉象，是正常人在不同时令的脉象还是病人的脉象呢？

7.2 是这样的：这些都是与时令相适应的正常脉象。

7.3 其相应的月份是什么呢？各旺多少天呢？

7.4 是这样的：从冬至节以后，逢第一个甲子的六十天，少阳之气旺；第二个甲子的六十天，阳明之气旺；第三个甲子的六十天，太阳之气旺；第四个甲子的六十天，少阴之气旺；第五个甲子的六十天，太阴之气旺；第六个甲子的六十天，厥阴之气旺。每一节令所旺

dance of Yin and deficiency of Yang. [The pulse that appears] weak and small [when] heavily [pressed] and [the pulse that appears] forceful and large [when] lightly [pressed] indicate superabundance of Yang and deficiency of Yin. This is what deficiency and excess of Yin and Yang [in differentiating the pulse] means.

7.1 The seventh issue: The Canon says that [when] Shaoyang arrives, [the pulse] is suddenly small, suddenly large, suddenly short and suddenly long; [when] Yangming arrives, [the pulse] is floating, large and short; [when] Taiyang arrives, [the pulse] is forceful, large and long; [when] Taiyin arrives, [the pulse] is tense, large and long; [when] Shaoyin arrives, [the pulse] is tense, thin and mild; [when] Jueyin arrives, [the pulse] is sinking, short and tense. These six [states of] pulse are normal or abnormal?

7.2 This is the answer: These are all normal pulses [corresponding to the seasons respectively].

7.3 What months [do these pulses] correspond to and how many days do they dominate over?

7.4 This is the answer: After the Winter Solstice (22nd solar term), [the Qi of] Shaoyang is in domination in the first Jiazi (sixty days circle); [the Qi of] Yangming is in domination in the second Jiazi (sixty days circle); [the Qi of] Taiyang is in domination in the third Jiazi (sixty days circle); [the Qi of] Taiyin is in domination in the fourth Jiazi (sixty days circle); [the Qi of] Shaoyin is in domination in the fifth Jiazi (sixty days circle); [the Qi of] Jueyin is in domination in the sixth Jiazi (sixty days circle). 六十日，六六三百六十日，以成一岁。此三阳三阴之王时日大要也。

8.1 八难曰：寸口脉平而死者，何谓也？

8.2 然：诸十二经脉者，皆系于生气之原。所谓生气之原者，谓十二经之根本也，谓肾间动气也。此五脏六腑之本，十二经脉之根，呼吸之门，三焦之原。一名守邪之神。故气者，人之根本也，根绝则茎叶枯矣，寸口脉平而死者，生气独绝于内也。

9.1 九难曰：何以别知脏腑之病耶？

9.2 然：数者，腑也；迟者，脏也。数则为热，迟则为寒。诸阳为热，诸阴为寒。故以别知脏腑之病也。

10.1 十难曰：一脉为十变者，何谓也？

【今译】

的时间各为六十天，六六三百六十天，就是一年。这就是三阳三阴六气当旺的大概情况。

8.1 第八难说：寸口脉正常，但患者却死了。这是什么原因呢？

8.2 是这样的：所有的十二经脉，都以生气为本原。所谓生气的本原，即十二经脉的根本，也就是两肾之间的动气。这是五脏六腑之本，十二经脉之根，呼吸之门，三焦之原，又是人体防御病邪侵袭的守护之神。所以说气是人的生命根本。如果根已经断绝，茎叶就会枯死。寸口脉正常，但病人却死亡了，这就是由于生气首先竭绝于内的缘故。

9.1 第九难说：怎样判断脏腑的病变呢？

9.2 是这样的：数脉主腑病，迟脉主脏病。数脉主热证，迟脉主寒证。凡出现属阳的脉象，就是热证；凡出现属阴的脉象，就是寒证。这样就可以辨别脏腑病变了。

10.1 第十难说：一脏的脉象有十种变态。这是什么原因呢？

sixty is three hundred and sixty days, making up one year. This is the brief description about the days dominated by the three Yang and three Yin.

8.1 The eighth issue: The pulse over Cunkou was normal, [but the patient] died. What is the reason?

8.2 This is the answer: All the twelve Channels are connected with the origin of Shengqi (Vital-Qi). The so-called Shengqi (Vital-Qi) refers to the root of the twelve Channels. [The root of the twelve Channels] means the active Qi between the kidneys which is the foundation of the Five Zang-Organs and the Six Fu-Organs, the root of the twelve Channels, the gate of respiration, the source of the Sanjiao (Triple Energizer) and the god [to defend the body] against the Xie (Evil). Hence Qi is the root of the human body. [If] the root is cut off, the trunk and the leaves will surely dry up. [The reason that] the pulse over the Cunkou was normal but [the patient] died [is that] the Shengqi (Vital-Qi) was exhausted inside.

9.1 The ninth issue: How to differentiate diseases of the Zang-Organs and the Fu-Organs?

9.2 This is the answer: [If the pulse is] rapid, [it indicates that the disease is related to] the Fu-Organs; [if the pulse is] slow, [it indicates that the disease is related to] the Zang-Organs. Rapid [pulse] indicates heat while slow [pulse] indicates cold. All [the pulses pertaining to] Yang indicate heat and all [the pulses pertaining to] Yin indicate cold. That is the way how to differentiate diseases of the Zang-Organs and the Fu-Organs.

10.1 The tenth issue: The pulse of one [Zang-Organ may have] ten changes. What is the reason?

【今译】

10.2 是这样的：这说明了五邪相互影响、相互传变的情况。如心脉急甚的，表明肝病之邪侵犯心脏；心脉急而微的，表明胆病之邪侵犯了小肠；心脉大甚的，表明心病之邪自犯于心；心脉大而轻微的，表明小肠病邪自犯小肠；心脉缓甚的，表明脾病之邪侵犯了心脏；心脉缓而微的，表明胃病之邪侵犯了小肠；心脉涩甚的，表明肺病之邪侵犯了心脏；心脉微涩的，表明大肠病邪侵犯了小肠；心脉沉甚的，表明肾病之邪侵犯了心脏；心脉微沉的，表明膀胱病邪侵犯了小肠。五脏之邪各有刚柔的不同，所以使一脏的脉象表现出十种不同的变化。

11.1 第十一难说：医经上说，脉跳不满五十次而有一次歇止，这是一脏无生气的脉象表现。倒底是哪一脏呢？

11.2 是这样的：人在吸气时，气就会深入阴分；呼气时，气则

10. 2 This is the answer: This shows how the Wuxie (Five Evils related to the Five Zang-Organs) interact with and transform into each other. If the heart pulse is rapid, [it shows that] Xie (Evil) in the liver affects the heart; [if] the heart pulse is slightly rapid, [it shows that] Xie (Evil) in the gallbladder affects the small intestine; [if] the heart pulse is extremely rapid, [it shows that] Xie (Evil) in the heart affects the heart itself; [if] the heart pulse is slightly large, [it shows that] Xie (Evil) in the small intestine affects the small intestine itself; [if] the heart pulse is extremely slow, [it shows that] Xie (Evil) in the spleen affects the heart; [if] the heart pulse is slightly slow, [it shows that] Xie (Evil) in the stomach affects the small intestine; [if] the heart pulse is extremely unsmooth, [it shows that] Xie (Evil) in the lung affects the heart; [if] the heart pulse is slightly unsmooth, [it shows that] Xie (Evil) in the large intestine affects the small intestine; [if] the heart pulse is extremely sinking, [it shows that] Xie (Evil) in the kidney affects the heart; [if] the heart pulse is slightly sinking, [it shows that] Xie (Evil) in the bladder affects the small intestine. All the Five Zang-Organs may have been affected by the strong and mild Xie (Evil) [from other viscera]. That is why the pulse of one [Zang-Organ] may have ten changes.

11. 1 The eleventh issue: The Canon says, [if] the pulse intermits before it has pulsated fifty times, [it shows that] one Zang-Organ has no Qi (Essence-Qi). Which Zang-Organ does it refer to?

12.2 是这样的：五脏之脉已衰于内，是指肾肝之气已经虚衰于内，而医生反补其心肺；五脏之脉已衰于外，是指心肺之气已虚衰于外，而医生反补其肾肝。属阳的脏器虚损而反补属阴的脏器，属阴的

脏器虚损反补属阳的脏器，就是用补法治实证，用泻法治虚证，也就是攻泻不足而补益有余。像这样导致病人死亡的，是医生的过失所造成的。

果脉一呼跳动一次，一吸跳动一次，即为损脉，病人虽能行走，但将发展到卧床不起的地步，这是气血两虚的缘故。如果脉两呼跳动一次，两吸跳动一次，或者一呼一吸跳动两次，都叫“无魂”之脉，见到这种脉象，就意味着病人即将死亡。病人虽能勉强行走，那也只能叫做“行尸”。

14.10 若寸部有脉而尺部无脉，病人当有呕吐，无呕吐，则会死亡。若寸部无脉而尺部有脉，病情虽然严重，但无生命危险。之所以会这样，是因为有尺脉的缘故，就好像树有根一样，虽然枝叶干枯了，只要根没有损伤，还会生长。脉象有根本，说明元气尚存，所以知道病人不会死亡。

15.1 第十五难说：医经上说，春季脉弦，夏季脉钩，秋季脉毛，冬季脉石。这是与四季相应的正常脉象还是有病的脉象？

[The patient with such a pulse,] though able to walk, [will gradually become so serious that he] has to take to the bed [and never rise again] because of insufficiency of both the blood and Qi. [If the pulse] beats once in two exhalations and once in two inhalations, [it is] called Wuhun (loss of soul) . [Appearance of] Wuhun (loss of soul) [pulse indicates that the patient will] die. Though the patient may be able to walk, [such a way of walking is] called Xingshi (corpse walking).

14. 10 [If] the pulse in the upper region is sensible [but] the pulse in the lower region is insensible, [it shows that] the person vomits; [if there is] no [symptom of] vomiting, [it indicates] death. [If] the pulse in the upper region is insensible [but] the pulse in the lower region is sensible, [it shows that the disease,] though serious, will not threaten life. The reason for this [lies in the fact that] the Chi [pulse] in the human body is like the root of a tree. The trunk and leaves [of the tree] may be withered and dried up. [But if] the root [is not damaged, it will] grow automatically. [When] the root of the pulse exists, [it shows that] the person still has Yuanqi (Primordial-Qi). 15.3 夏脉钩，是因为心应五方之南与五行之火。夏季万物生长旺盛，树木枝垂叶茂，向下弯曲如钩，所以脉来疾去迟，故而称作钩脉。

15.4 秋脉毛，是因为肺应五方之西与五行之金。秋季万物生长到了终极，草木的花叶到了秋季就开始枯萎凋落，只留下枝条，就像毫毛一样。所以秋季脉来轻虚而浮，故而称为毛脉。

15.5 冬脉石，是因为肾应五方之北与五行之水。冬季万物生机潜伏闭藏，隆冬季节水凝如石。所以冬季脉来沉濡而滑，故而称为石

stony [pulses are] the pulses corresponding to the four seasons. [The reason that] the pulse in spring is taut [is that] the liver [matches with] the east [in the five orientations] and Wood [in the Wuxing (Five Elements)] . [In spring] all things begin to resuscitate [and the trees have] not grow leaves. So the pulse [in spring] appears soft, weak and long. That is why [it is] called taut [pulse].

15.3 [The reason that] the pulse in summer is [curved like] a hook [is that] the heart [matches with] the south [in the five orientations] and Fire [in the Wuxing (Five Elements)] . [In summer] all things are growing luxuriantly, the branches [of trees are] bent like hooks because of the leaves. So the pulse [in summer] comes quickly and recedes slowly. That is why [it is] called hook- [like pulse].

15.4 [The reason that] the pulse is hairy in autumn [is that] the lung [matches with] the west [in the five orientations] and Metal [in the Wuxing (Five Elements)] . [In autumn] all things are declining, the flowers and leaves of grasses and trees all begin to wither and fall, only the branches alone remain [on the trees] like hair [on the body]. So the pulse [in autumn] appears light, weak and floating when coming. That is why [it is] called hairy [pulse].

15.5 [The reason that] the pulse is stony in winter [is that] the kidney [matches with] the north [in the five orientations] and Water [in the Wuxing (Five Elements)] . [In winter] all things go into hiding. Deep in winter, water is frozen like stone. So the pulse [in winter] appears sinking, soft and slippery when coming. That is why [it is] called stony [pulse]. 17.1 第十七难说：医经上说，患病以后有的人死亡，有的人不治而自愈，有的人则经年累月久治不愈。疾病的这些生死存亡情况，可通过诊脉的方法测知吗？

17.2 是这样的：这些都可以通过切脉而测知。在诊察时，如病人双眼紧闭，不想见人，脉象应呈现肝脏病脉弦急而长的特点。如果反而呈现肺脏病浮短而涩的特点，则是死证。假如病人双眼睁开，感到口渴，心下按之坚硬时，应出现坚实而数的心脉。如果反而出现沉涩而微的脉象，则是死证。假如病人吐血，又出现鼻塞不通，流鼻血的症状时，应呈现沉细的脉象。如果反而见到浮大而牢的脉象，则是死证。假如病人胡言乱语时，身体应当发热，脉象应当洪大。如果反见手足厥冷，脉沉细而微，则是死证。假如病人腹部胀大而兼有泻泄的症状，脉象应当微细而涩。如果反而见到紧大而滑的脉象，则是死证。

17. 1 The seventeenth issue: The Canon says that some diseases lead to death, some [diseases] heal automatically without being treated and some [diseases] linger for years. Can the prognosis of these diseases be predicted by examining the pulse?

17. 2 This is the answer: [The prognosis of these diseases] all can be predicted [by examining the pulse] . In diagnosing diseases, if [the patient] closes the eyes and does not want to see any people, the liver pulse will be found [and it appears] very taut and long. [If,] on the contrary, the lung pulse is found [and it appears] floating, short and unsmooth, [it indicates that the patient will] die. If the patient opens the eyes and feels thirsty and the region below the heart is felt hard [when pressed], the pulse will be tense, replete and rapid. [If,] on the contrary, [the pulse] is found to be sinking, soft and slight, [it indicates that the patient will] die. If there appear [the symptoms of] vomiting blood followed by nasal obstruction and bleeding, the pulse will be sinking and thin. [If,] on the contrary, [the pulse is] found to be floating, large and firm, [it indicates that the patient will] die. If there appear [the symptoms of] delirium, the body will be feverish and the pulse will be full and large. [If,] on the contrary, the hands and feet are cold, and the pulse is sinking, thin and slight, [it indicates that the patient will] die. If there appear [the symptoms of] abdominal distension and diarrhea, the pulse will be slight, thin and unsmooth. [If,] on the contrary, [the pulse is] found to be tense, large and slippery, [it indicates that the patient will] die.

系，手的经脉有手太阳肺经和手阳明大肠经，足的经脉有足太阳膀胱经和足少阴肾经，分别属于在上的寸脉和在下的尺脉。为什么是这样的呢？

18.2 是这样的：手太阴肺经和手阳明大肠经属金，足少阴肾经和足太阳膀胱经属水，金能生水，水流向下而不能向上，所以属在下的尺脉。足厥阴肝经和足少阳胆经属木，木能生手太阳小肠经和手少阴心经之火，火性炎上而不能向下，所以属在上的寸部。手厥阴心包络经和手少阳三焦经属火，火能生足太阴脾经和足阳明胃经之土，土主中央，所以属在中的关部。这些都是按五行母子相生关系确定的。

18.2 This is the answer: [The Channels of] Hand-Taiyin and Hand-Yangming [pertain to] Metal [in the Wuxing (Five Elements)]; [the Channels of] Foot-Shaoyin and Foot-Taiyang [pertain to] Water [in the Wuxing (Five Elements)]. [According to the theory of Wuxing (Five Elements),] Metal generates Water. Water always flows downwards and can never flow upwards. That is why [it corresponds to] the lower portion. taking the pulse in] the upper portion, based on [the law of] the heaven, is for examining the diseases located in the regions from above the chest to the head; [the method for taking the pulse in] the middle portion, based on the nature of man, is for examining the diseases located in the region from below the diaphragm to the navel; [the method for taking the pulse in] the lower portion, based on the law of the earth, is for examining the diseases located in the region from below the navel to the feet. [Only when the location of the diseases is] made clear can needling [therapy be used].

18.5 [If] a person suffer from protracted accumulation of stagnated [Qi], can it be diagnosed by taking the pulse?

18.6 This is the answer: [If] accumulation of Qi is found in the right hypochondrium, the lung pulse must be knotted. [If] the pulse is seriously knotted, the accumulation [of Qi must be] serious; [if the pulse is] lightly knotted, the accumulation [of Qi must be] light.

18.7 Why sometimes the lung pulse is not found but there is accumulation of Qi in the right hypochondrium?

18.8 This is the answer: Though the lung pulse is not found, the pulse in the right hand must be sinking and deep-sited.

18.9 Can the same method be used [if the patient suffers from] stubborn disease? Or should other methods be used?

18.10 This is the answer: [The so-called] knotted [pulse means that] the pulse intermits once irregularly when coming and going away. That is why it is called knotted [pulse] . The deep-sited [pulse means that] the pulse beats beneath the tendon. The floating [pulse means that] the pulse beats over the muscle.

19.1 十九难曰：经言脉有逆顺，男女有恒，句而反者，何谓也？

19.2 然：男子生于寅，寅为木，阳也；女子生于申，申为金，阴也。故男脉在关上，女脉在关下。是以男子尺脉恒弱；女子尺脉恒盛，是其常也。反者，男得女脉，女得男脉也。

脉，是脉气行于肌肉之上。无论疾病在左、在右、在表、在里，诊脉的方法都是这样。假如脉象结而伏，但内部没有积聚；脉象浮而结，但外无痼疾。这种有积聚而脉不结伏，有痼疾而脉不浮结的现象，是脉象与疾病不相应，或疾病与脉象不相应，都是难治之证。

19.1 第十九难说：医经上说，脉象有逆有顺，在男女脉象变化上有一定的规律，和常规脉象变化相反的脉象。说得是什么呢？

19.2 是这样的：男子生于寅，寅在五行为木，为阳。女子生于申，申在五行为金，为阴。因此男性脉在关以上的寸部，女子脉在关以下的尺部。所以男子的尺脉常虚弱，女子的尺脉常强盛，这就是男女脉象的常规。所谓和常规脉相反的脉象，就是在男子诊得像女子一样的脉象，在女子诊得像男子一样的脉象。

19.3 与常规相反的脉象其发病情况是怎样的呢？

[No matter the diseases are located in] the left [side] or right [side] or in the interior or in the exterior, [they] all [can be diagnosed with] the methods mentioned above. If the pulse is knotted and deep-sited [but there is] internally no accumulation, [if] there is accumulation [inside but] the pulse is not knotted and deep-sited and [if] there is stubborn disease [but] the pulse is not floating and knotted, [it all shows that] the pulse does not correspond to the disease and the disease does not correspond to the pulse. [Such a disagreement between the disease and the pulse indicates that] the disease is incurable.

19.1 The nineteenth issue: The Canon says that the pulse is either contrary to or in accordance with [the proper course of Qi] and that there are regular [changes] in males and females. [Such changes are] contrary to [the common changes of the pulse] . What is the reason?

19.2 This is the answer: The males were born in Yin (the third of the twelve Earthly Branches) which pertains to Wood [in the Wuxing (Five Elements)] and Yang [in the theory of Yin and Yang] . The females were born in Shen (the ninth of the twelve Earthly Branches) which pertains to Metal [in the Wuxing (Five Elements)] and Yin [in the theory of Yin and Yang]. That is why the pulse in the males [is located] above the Guan [region] and the pulse in the females [is located] below the Guan [region] . That is the reason why the Chi pulse in the males is always weak and the Chi pulse in the females is always strong. This is the regular state. The contrary [situation is that] the female pulse is found in the males and the male pulse is found in the females.

19.3 What diseases does it indicate?

20.1 二十难曰：经言脉有伏匿。伏匿于何脏而言伏匿邪？

20.2 然：谓阴阳更相乘，更相伏也。脉居阴部而反阳脉见者，为阳乘阴也，脉虽时沉涩而短，此谓阳中伏阴也；脉居阳部而反阴脉见者，为阴乘阳也，脉虽时浮滑而长，此谓阴中伏阳也。

19.4 是这样的：如果在男子诊得女性一样的脉象，为阳气不足，表明病位在里。在左侧诊得此脉，病位在左；在右侧诊得此脉，病位在右，这是根据脉位来说明病变的部位。如果在女子诊得男子一样的脉象，为阳盛有余，表明病在四肢。在左侧诊得此脉，病位在左；在右侧诊得此脉，病位在右。这是根据脉位来确定病变的部位。与男女常规脉象相反的脉的主病情况，就是这样的。

20.1 第二十难说：医经上说，脉象有伏匿的情况。伏匿到哪一脏才算伏匿呢？

20.2 是这样的：这是讲阴脉和阳脉之间相乘、伏匿的关系。阴位之脉反而出现在阳位，是阳脉乘了阴位。虽然阳位之脉时有沉涩而短之象，但这是阳位中伏匿着阴脉的缘故。阳位之脉却反而出现在阴位，是阴脉乘了阳位，虽然阴位之脉时有浮滑而长之象，但这是阴位中伏匿着阳脉的缘故。

19. 4 This is the answer: [If] female pulse is found in a man, [it indicates] weakness and internal disease. [If such a pulse is] found in the left [hand], the disease is located in the left [side]; [if such a pulse is] found in the right [hand], the disease is located in the right [side]. [This is the explanation about the location of disease] according to [the location of] the pulse. [If] the male pulse is found in a woman, [it] indicates Taiguo (greatly excessive) and disease located in the four limbs. [If such a pulse is] found in the left [hand], the disease is located in the left [side]; [if such a pulse is] found in the right [hand], the disease is located in the right [side]. [This is the explanation about the location of a disease] according to [the location of] the pulse. The reason is just like that.

20. 1 The twentieth issue: The Canon says that the pulse may be hidden. What Zang-Organ does it hide [when it is] regarded as hidden [pulse]?

20. 2 This is the answer: [This is] a description about the mutual subjugation and mutual hiding [relationship between] the Yin [pulse] and the Yang [pulse]. [The situation in which] the Yang pulse is found in the Yin portion indicates that the Yang [pulse] subjugates the Yin [pulse]. Though the pulse [in the Yang region] occasionally is sinking, unsmooth and short, [it shows that] the Yin [pulse] is hiding in the Yang [region]. [The situation in which] the Yin pulse is found in the Yang portion indicates that the Yin [pulse] subjugates the Yang [pulse]. Though the pulse [in the Yin region] occasionally is floating, slippery and long, [it shows that] the Yang [pulse] is hiding in the Yin [region].

21.2 是这样的：人体有病却不见病脉的，并非脉象真无异常，而是说呼吸的次数与脉搏动的次数不相符合。这是诊察疾病时要注意的重要方法。

22.1 第二十二难说：医经上说，经脉分别有“是动病”和“所生病”。每一脉的病变可分为两种。这是什么道理呢？

21.1 The twenty-first issue: The Canon says that [if a person is] physically ill [but] the pulse is normal, [it] means life (not serious); and that [if a person's] pulse is morbid [but his] body does not [show any signs of] illness, [it] means death (critical). What is the reason?

21.2 This is the answer: [When] a person is physically ill [but] the pulse is still normal, [it] does not mean [that the pulse] is really not morbid. [It actually means that] the times of breath do not correspond to the times of pulse beating. This is the key method [to diagnose diseases].

22.2 This is the answer: In the Canon, Shidong (abnormal changes) mentioned refers to [diseases of] Qi and Suoshengbing (diseases caused) refers to [diseases of] the blood. 23.12 是这样的：脉气的终始，是诊脉之大法。寸口和人迎部位，是阴阳经脉灌注会聚之处，其运行如环无端，所以叫做“始”。所谓“终”，指手足三阴三阳经脉之气衰竭，衰竭则死。病人将死时，有各种不同的表现，所以叫做“终”。

The fifteen Collaterals are, in the same way, [connected with each other] like a circle without an end, infusing into each other and converging over Cunkou and Renying (KI 2) [through which] all diseases can be diagnosed and correct prognosis can be made.

23. 11 The Canon says that understanding the termination and beginning [of the flow of Channel-Qi will enable one] to distinguish Yin and Yang. What does it mean?

23. 12 This is the answer: The termination and beginning [of the flow of Channel-Qi] is key to pulse [diagnosis]. The Cunkou and Renying (KI 2) [are the places where] the Qi of the Yin [Channels] and the Yang [Channels] infuses and converges. [The twelve Channels are running] like a circle without an end. That is what beginning means. Termination means exhaustion of the three Yin [Channels] and the three Yang [Channels]. [If the Qi in the Channels is] exhausted, [it leads to] death. [When the patient is going to] die, there are various clinical manifestations [concerning each Channel]. That is what termination means.

24. 1 The twenty-fourth issue: What symptoms will appear when the three Yin [Channels] and the three Yang [Channels] of the hands and feet are exhausted? Can the prognosis be predicted?

24. 2 This is the answer: Exhaustion of [the Kidney Channel of] Foot-Shaoyin will cause dryness of the bones. [The Kidney

肾经应于冬脉，该脉深伏内行，可温养骨髓。所以如果骨髓得不到温养，肌肉就不会附着于骨骼。如果骨肉不相附着，肌肉就会软弱萎缩。肌肉软弱萎缩后，就会引起牙根外露，牙齿似变长了，牙齿干枯，头发失去光泽。头发无光泽，表明骨骼已先死。这种病在戊日就会加重，逢己日就会死亡。

24.3 足太阴经气衰竭，则经脉之气就不能营养口唇。口唇是肌肉之本。脾的经脉不能输布营养物质，肌肉就不会光滑润泽；肌肉不光滑润泽，则人中沟就会变浅；人中沟变浅，口唇就会外翻；口唇外翻，就表明肌肉已先死。这种病逢甲日加重，逢乙日死亡。

24.4 足厥阴经气衰竭，就会筋缩，并且牵引睾丸上缩和舌卷。足厥阴经是肝的经脉。肝与筋相合。筋会聚于外生殖器而又上络于舌根。所以肝经不能发挥营养作用，则使筋拘急挛缩。由于筋拘急挛缩，就会牵引睾丸和舌，所以出现舌卷和睾丸上缩的症状，表明筋已先

Channel of] Foot-Shaoyin is a Channel pertaining to winter and runs deep inside to warm the bone marrow. So [if] the bone marrow is not warmed, the muscles will not be tightly attached to the bones. [If] the bones and muscles are not closely attached to each other, the muscles will become weak and atrophic. [If] the muscles are weak and atrophic, the teeth will appear long and withered and the hair becomes lusterless. [This is a sign that] the bones are dead already. [Such a disease will become] worsened in the day of Wu and [the patient will] die in the day of Ji.

24.3 Exhaustion of [the Spleen Channel of] Foot-Taiyin will make it impossible to nourish the lips. The lips are the roots of the muscles. [If the Spleen] Channel does not nourish [the lips], the muscles will become lusterless and unsmooth. [If] the muscles are lusterless and unsmooth, the philtrum will become shallow and the lips will curl back. [If] the lips curl back, [it shows that] the muscles are dead already. [Such a disease will become] worsened in the day of Jia and [the patient will] die in the day of Yi.

24.4 Exhaustion of [the Liver Channel of] Foot-Jueyin will cause spasm of tendons, shrinkage of scrotum and curled tongue. Foot-Shaoyin is the Channel of the liver. The liver is related to the tendons. The tendons converge over the external genitals and connect with the root of the tongue. So [if] the Channel [of the liver] does not nourish [the tendons], the tendons will become contracted and spasmodic. [If] the tendons are contracted and spasmodic, the scrotum and the tongue will be involved. That is why the tongue becomes curled and the scrotum becomes shrunk. This [shows that] the tendons are dead already. [Such a disease

24.5 手太阴经气衰竭，则皮毛焦枯。手太阴经是肺的经脉，运行精气以温养皮毛。如果肺经不能输布营养物质，皮毛就会焦枯；皮毛焦枯，则津液丧失；津液丧失，则损伤皮毛和关节；皮毛关节受损，则会引起皮肤枯槁，毫毛断折。毫毛断折，表明皮毛已先死。这种病逢丙日加重，逢丁日死亡。

24.7 手足三阴经都已衰竭，就会出现目眩，视物不清，双目闭合的症状。双目闭合，表明神志丧失。神志丧失，就是神志先死。所以人在死的时候，眼睛就闭合了。

25.1 第二十五难说：人体有十二经脉，五脏六腑却只有十一个，所余的一经是什么脏器的经脉呢？

25.2 是这样的：所余的一经是手厥阴心包经，手少阴心经与手厥阴心包经共属心的经脉，手厥阴心包经和手少阳三焦经互为表里，两者都是有名而无形，所以说人体有十二条经脉。

26.1 第二十六难说：人体只有十二条经脉，但却有十五条络脉，所余的三条别络，是哪些经脉的别络呢？

26.2 是这样的：其他的三条络脉是阳络、阴络及脾之大络。所谓阳络，指阳趺脉的别络；所谓阴络，是阴趺脉的别络。所以络脉共有十五条。

27.1 第二十七难说：经脉中有奇经八条，不隶属于十二经脉的范围。这是怎么回事呢？

25. 1 The twenty-fifth issue: There are twelve Channels. The Five Zang-Organs plus the Six Fu-Organs is eleven. Which organ does the other Channel pertain to?

25. 2 This is the answer: The other Channel refers to [the Heart Channel of] Hand-Shaoyin and the Pericardium [Channel of Hand-Jueyin]. The Pericardium [Channel of Hand-Shaoyin] and the Sanjiao (Triple Energizer) [Channel of Hand-Shaoyang] are internally and externally [related to each other]. Both [Channels] have names but have no substantial forms. That is why the Canon mentions twelve Channels.

26. 1 The twenty-sixth issue: There are twelve Channels, but there are fifteen Collaterals. What Channels do the other three Collaterals pertain to?

26. 2 This is the answer: [The other three Collaterals are] Yang Collateral, Yin Collateral and the Major Collateral of the Spleen [Channel]. The Yang Collateral is the Collateral of the Yangqiao (Yang Heel-Channel) and the Yin Collateral is the Collateral of the Yinqiao (Yin Heel-Channel). So altogether there are fifteen Collaterals.

28.2 然：督脉者，起于下极之俞，并于脊里，上至风府，入属于脑。

27.2 是这样的：阳维脉、阴维脉、阳跷脉、阴跷脉、冲脉、督脉、任脉、带脉，这八条经脉都不同于十二经脉，所以称为奇经八脉。

27.3 经脉有十二条，络脉有十五条。这二十七条经络的脉气，在人体上下运行，为什么只有奇经不在十二经脉范围之内呢？

27.4 是这样的：古代的圣人们开掘沟渠，疏通水道，以防备灾害。天降大雨，沟渠溢满，此时雨水就会泛滥成灾。这时就是圣人也不可能把水堵住。络脉也是这样。当络脉满溢时，十二经脉不能对其调节，须流入蓄藏在奇经，故奇经不在十二经脉范围内。

28.1 第二十八难说：奇经八脉既然不在十二经脉范围内，那么其循行是从哪里开始的，又是怎样相连的呢？

28.2 是这样的：督脉起于长强穴下的会阴，沿着脊柱里面，上达风府穴，进入脑部。

28.3 任脉起于中极穴的下面，向上到达毛际，沿腹壁内上行过关元穴，到达咽喉部。

27. 2 This is the answer: [The eight extraordinary Channels] include Yinwei (Yin-Link Channel), Yangwei (Yang-Link Channel), Yangqiao (Yang-Heel-Channel), Yinqiao (Yin-Heel-Channel), Chongmai (Thoroughfare Vessel), Dumai (Thoroughfare Vessel), Renmai (Conception Vessel) and Daimai (Belt Vessel). These eight Channels are not included in the twelve Channels. That is why they are called eight extraordinary Channels.

27. 3 There are twelve Channels and fifteen Collaterals. The Qi of these twenty-seven Channels flows from the upper to the lower [parts of the body]. Why only [the eight extraordinary Channels are] not included in [the twelve regular] Channels?

27. 4 This is the answer: The sages [in ancient times] made plans and constructed ditches to keep the waterways open in order to prevent disasters. [When it] rains heavily, the ditches will soon overflow. In times like that, the heavy rainfalls will flood wildly, even the sages are unable to control it. This is just like the Collaterals which are overflowing so wildly that all the Channels cannot control it.

28. 1 The twenty-eighth issue: The eight extraordinary Channels are not included in the twelve Channels. Where do they begin to run and how do they connect with each other?

28. 2 This is the answer: The Dumai (Governor Vessel) starts from the Acupoint (CV 1) at the end [of the trunk], runs inside the spine and upwards to Fengfu (GV 16) and enters the brain.

28. 3 The Renmai (Conception Vessel) starts from the Acupoint (CV 1) below the end [of the trunk], runs upwards along the [pubic] hairline, into the abdomen, through Guanyuan (CV 4) to the throat.

28.9 正如圣人设计开挖沟渠一样，当沟渠满溢时，就会流入深湖之中。所以圣人治水也不拘泥于开通水渠。当人体经脉中气血充盛时，就会进入奇经八脉，而不会环绕周流，所以不受十二经脉限制。如果奇经八脉受到病邪侵袭，蓄积日久就会发生红肿灼热，可以用

28.4 The Chongmai (Thoroughfare Vessel) starts from Qichong (ST 30), merges with [the Stomach] Channel of Foot-Yangming, runs upwards beside the navel to the chest and then dissipates.

28.5 The Daimai (Belt Vessel) starts from the hypochondrium and circles around the body.

28.8 The Yangwei (Yang-Link) Channel and Yinwei (Yin-Link) Channel link [the Channels all over] the body to [transport Qi to] the parts [of the body that Qi from] the Channels cannot be infused into. So even the sages cannot prevent water from flowing. Similarly, [when] the Channels in the body are full [of blood and Qi, the blood and Qi will] flow into the eight extraordinary Channels and will not circulate again [if it is] not necessary. 30.1 第三十难说：营气的运行，是否常与卫气相随而行呢？

30.2 是这样的：医经上说，人依靠水谷精微营养全身。饮食进入胃中，所化生的精微物质输布到五脏六腑，从而使五脏六腑都能得到营养。其中清的部分称为营气，浊的部分称为卫气。营气行于脉中，卫气行于脉外，在全身运行不止，在人体循行五十周次后复会于手太阴肺经。这样阴阳相互贯通，如环无端。所以营气与卫气是相随而行的。

30. 1 The thirtieth issue: Does the Yingqi (Nutrient-Qi) flow with the Weiqi (Defensive-Qi)?

30. 2 This is the answer: The Canon says that human beings obtain Qi from the foods which, after taken into the stomach, are transported to the Five Zang-Organs and the Six Fu-Organs to provide Qi for the Five Zang-Organs and the Six Fu-Organs. The clear [part of the Qi] changes into the Ying (Nutrient-Qi) and the turbid [part of Qi] turns into the Wei (Defensive-Qi). The Ying (Nutrient-Qi) flows inside the Channels and the Wei (Defensive-Qi) flows outside the Channels to nourish the whole body while circulating incessantly [inside the body] . [After completing] fifty circles [of circulation, they] meet with each other again. [In such a way,] the Yin and Yang link with each other like a circle without an end. 金。肝得水则下沉，但木得水却会漂浮；肺得水则上浮，而金得水却下沉。这种现象该怎样解释呢？

33.2 是这样的：肝并非单属木性，它在十天干中属乙，在五音中属角，和属阴的庚金相配合。从大处讲，是阴阳相合；从小处讲，如同夫妇相合。消散了微弱的阳气，而吸收了微弱的阴气，顺从了金的特性，因而表现出趋向于下的规律，所以肝得水就会下沉。肺病并非单纯属金，它在十天干中属于辛，在五音中配属商，与丙火相配。从大处讲，是阴阳相配；从小处讲，这是夫妇相合。消散了微弱的阴气，吸收了丙火的阳气，顺从了火的性质，所以具有向上运动的规律，因此肺得水就会上浮。

33.3 肺有热则下沉，肝有热则上升。这是什么道理呢？

Elements)]; the lung [is related to the color of] white [that pertains to] the Metal [in the Wuxing (Five Elements)] . The liver will sink [when it is] put into water, [but] the wood will float up [when it is] put into water. The lung will float up [when it is] put into water, [but] the metal will sink [when it is] put into water. What is the reason?

33. 2 This is the answer: The liver is not purely Wood [in nature]. [It pertains to] Yi [in the ten Heavenly Stems] and Jiao [in the five musical notes and matches with] the soft [part of] Geng (the seventh of the ten Heavenly Stems). In a broad sense, this is like the combination of Yin and Yang; in a narrow sense, this is just [like the relationship between] a husband and a wife. [The Qi of] mild Yang is released and the Qi of mild Yin is absorbed. [Such a releasing and absorbing activity] follows the tendency of the Metal and abides by the law of Yin. That is why the liver sinks [when it is] put into water. The lung is not purely Metal [in nature] . [It pertains to] Xin [in the ten Heavenly Stems] and Shang [in the five musical notes and matches with] the soft [part of] Bing (the third of the ten Heavenly Stems). In a broad sense, this is just like the combination of Yin and Yang; in a narrow sense, this is just [like the relationship between] a husband and a wife. [The Qi of] mild Yin is released and the Qi of Fire is absorbed. [Such a releasing and absorbing activity] follows the tendency of the Fire and abides by the law of Yang. That is why the lung floats up [when it is] put into water.

33. 3 Why the lung sinks again [when there is] heat [in it] and the liver floats up [when there is] heat [in it]?

34.1 三十四难曰：五脏各有声色臭味液，皆可晓知以不？

34.3 五脏有七神，各何所藏耶？

34.4 然：脏者，人之神气所舍藏也。故肝藏魂，肺藏魄，心藏神，脾藏意与智，肾藏精与志也。

33.4 是这样的：这是由于辛金应当归并于庚金，乙木应当归并于甲木的缘故。

34.1 第三十四难说：五脏各有所主的声、色、气、味、液，这些内容都可以讲清楚吗？

34.2 是这样的：《十变》说，肝主青色，气味为臊，味属酸，声为呼，液为泪。心主赤色，气味为焦，味为苦，声为言，液为汗。脾主黄色，气味为香，味为甜，声为歌，液为涎。肺主白色，气味为腥，味为辛，声为哭，液为涕。肾主黑色，气味为腐，味为咸，声为呻，液为唾。这些就是五脏所主的声音、颜色、气味、味道和体液。

34.3 五脏中藏有七神，各脏分别藏的神是什么呢？

34.4 是这样的：五脏是神气所藏之处。肝藏魂，肺藏魄，心藏神，脾藏意和智，肾藏精和志。

33. 4 [This is the answer:] This is because the Xin (the eighth of the ten Heavenly Stems) merges with the Geng (the seventh of the ten Heavenly Stems) and the Yi (the second of the ten Heavenly Stems) merges with the Jia (the first of the ten Heavenly Stems).

34. 1 The thirty-fourth issue: The Five Zang-Organs [are related to] sounds, colors, odors and tastes respectively. Can this be known?

34. 2 This is the answer: [The following is what is] said [in the book entitled] Ten Changes: The liver is related to blue [in colors], foul smell [in odors], sourness [in tastes], shouting [in sounds] and tears [in liquids]; the heart is related to red [in colors], scorching [in odors], bitterness [in tastes], speaking [in sounds] and sweating [in liquids]; the spleen is related to yellow [in colors], fragrance [in odors], sweetness [in tastes], singing [in sounds] and drool [in liquids]; the lung is related to white [in colors], stink [in odors], acridness [in tastes], crying [in sounds] and snivel [in liquids]; the kidney is related to black [in colors], fetidness [in odors], saltiness [in tastes], groaning [in sounds] and spittle[in liquids] . This is how the sounds, colors, odors and tastes [are related to] the Five Zang-Organs.

34. 3 The Five Zang-Organs store seven kinds of spirit. How are [these spirits] stored respectively?

34. 4 This is the answer: The Zang-Organs are the organs that store spirits in the human body. So the liver stores Hun (Ethereal-Soul); the lung stores Po (Corporeal-Soul); the heart stores Shen (Spirit); the spleen stores Yi (consciousness) and Zhi (wisdom); and the kidney stores Jing (Essence) and Zhi (will).

35.1 第三十五难说：五脏与其相表里的腑比较近，但心肺两腑距离相表里的小肠、大肠两腑却比较远。这是什么道理呢？

35.2 是这样的：在医经上说，心主营气，肺主卫气，均有通行营卫之气的功能，因此居于横膈以上。而大肠和小肠是向下传导水谷残渣的，因此位于膈之下。所以心肺与大肠、小肠的距离比较远。

35.3 各腑都属阳，都是清净之处。但是大肠、小肠、胃和膀胱都盛受着秽浊不净之物。这是为什么呢？

35.4 是这样的：各腑都属于阳，这是对的。但说它们都是清净处所，却是不对的。医经上说，小肠为接受腐熟的水谷之腑，大肠为传泻糟粕之腑，胆为贮藏清净胆汁之腑，胃为受纳和消化食物之腑，膀胱为蓄藏残余尿液之腑。一个腑应该没有两个名称，所以把它们都称为清净之处就不对了。小肠为心之腑，大肠为肺之腑，胆为肝之

35. 1 The thirty-fifth issue: The Five Zang-Organs and [their related] Fu-Organs are near [in location]. But why the heart and the lung are far away from the large intestine and the small intestine [which are their related Fu-Organs]?

35. 2 [This is the answer:] The Canon says that the heart [governs] the Ying (Nutrient-Qi) and the lung [governs] the Wei (Defensive-Qi). [Both the heart and the lung are] connected with Yangqi. That is why [the heart and the lung are] located above [the diaphragm] . The large intestine and the small intestine transport Yingqi downwards. So [they are] located in the lower [part of the body] . That is why [the heart and the lung are] far away from [the large intestine and the small intestine].

35. 3 All the Fu-Organs are Yang [in nature] and [so are] the pure organs. But the large intestine, the small intestine, the stomach and the bladder receive waste materials. What is the significance [of such a change]?

35. 4 This is the answer: It is true that all the Fu-Organs [are Yang in nature, but] not [all the Fu-Organs are pure organs]. The Canon says that the small intestine is the Fu-Organ that receives [digested water and food], the large intestine is the Fu-Organ that transmits waste, the gallbladder is the Fu-Organ that is pure [because it stores lucid bile], the stomach is the Fu-Organ that receives water and food, the bladder is the Fu-Organ [that stores the waste] fluid. [The nature and function of] one Fu-Organ are not named in two ways. So [to regard all of them as the pure Fu-Organs] is not correct. The small intestine is the Fu-Organ [related to] the heart; the large intestine is the Five Zang-Organs. That is why it is said that there are five Fu-Organs.

40. 1 The fortieth issue: The Canon says that the liver governs colors, the heart governs odors, the spleen governs tastes, the spleen governs sounds and the kidney governs fluids. The nose is the external indicator of the lung, but it is able to distinguish odors. The ear is the external indicator of the kidney, but it is able to hear sounds. What does it mean?

40. 2 This is the answer: The lung [pertains to] the west [in the five orientations] and Metal [in the Wuxing (Five Elements)]. [According to the mutual promoting relationships among the Wuxing (Five Elements),] Metal is generated in Si (the sixth of the twelve Earthly Branches) [which pertains to] south [in the five orientations] and Fire [in the Wuxing (Five Elements)]. 由于还幼小，尚无阴阳偏颇。春季离冬天较近，距夏天不远，好像有两心而不专一一样。所以肝有两叶，与树叶抽芽时分裂为两片的现象相应。

42.1 第四十二难说：人体肠胃的长短，受纳水谷的有多少，各有定数吗？

42.2 是这样的：胃的周长一尺五寸，直径五寸，长度二尺六寸。盘屈可以容纳水谷三斗五升，其中常容纳食物二斗，水液一斗五升。

42.3 小肠的周长二寸半，直径八又三分之一分，长三丈二尺，可以容纳谷物二斗四升，水六升三又三分之二合。

42.5 广肠的周长八寸，直径为二寸半，长二尺八寸，可以容纳水谷糟粕九升三又八分之一合。

42.6 所以肠胃共长为五丈八尺四寸，合计可容纳水谷八斗七升六又八分之一合。这就是胃肠的长度和所容纳水谷的总量。

42. 1 The forty-second issue: How long are the intestines and the stomach? How much water and food [can the intestines and the stomach] contain?

42. 2 This is the answer: The stomach is one Chi and five Cun in size, five Cun in diameter, two Chi and six Cun in length. [When] coiled transversally, [it can] contain three Dou and five Sheng [of water and food]. Normally [the stomach] contains two Dou of food and one Dou and five Sheng of water.

42. 3 The small intestine is two and a half Cun in size, eight and a half Fen in diameter, three Zhang and two Chi in length, containing two Dou and four Sheng of food and six and two-thirds Sheng of water.

46. 2 This is the answer: The Canon says that in the young and the strong people the blood and Qi are abundant, the muscles are smooth, the Qi passages are open, the Ying (Nutrient-Qi) and Wei (Defensive-Qi) are flowing normally, without any violation of the law. That is why [the young and the strong people are] energetic in the daytime and uneasy to wake up at night. In the old people, the blood and Qi have declined, the muscles and the Qi [passages] are unsmooth, the passages of the Ying (Nutrient-Qi) and Wei (Defensive-Qi) are rough. 49.5 Suppose [a person suffers from] heart disease. How can one know that it is caused by wind attack?

49.9 如何判断是否因饮食不节及劳倦过度而引起的心病呢？

49.10 是这样的：患者应当有喜食苦味的症状。虚证的表现为不欲进食，实证的表现为欲进食。为什么呢？因为脾主味。所以病邪侵入肝脏，病人就会喜食酸味；侵入心脏，病人就会喜食苦味；侵入肺脏，病人就会喜食辛味；侵入肾脏，病人就会喜食咸味；病邪自入于脾脏，病人就会喜食甘味。因此当脾脏之邪侵入心脏，病人就会喜食苦味，还可见到发热、身体困重、嗜卧以及四肢不能屈曲等症状，脉象就为浮大而缓。

49. 10 This is the answer: [The patient] must prefer bitter taste. [If the disease is] Xu (Deficiency) [in nature, the patient] does not want to eat; [if the disease is] Shi (Excess) [in nature, the patient] wants to eat. Why it is explained in that way? 49.13 如何诊察感受湿邪而患的心病呢？

49.14 是这样的：患者应当有汗出不止的症状。

49.15 为什么会有这样的症状呢？因为肾主水湿。当病邪侵入肝脏，病人就会流泪；侵入心脏，病人就会出汗；侵入脾脏，病人就会流涎；侵入肺脏，病人就流涕；病邪自入肾脏，病人就会多唾。因此当肾脏的病邪侵入心脏，病人就会汗出不止，兼见发热、少腹疼痛、足胫寒冷，脉象沉濡而大。这些就是诊察五邪损伤五脏的方法。

[The other symptoms include] body fever, chilliness, or even panting and cough, floating, large and unsmooth pulse.

49. 13 How to diagnose [the diseases] caused by dampness attack.

49. 14 This is the answer: [The common symptom of the diseases caused by dampness attack] is constant sweating.

49. 15 Why there is such a symptom? Because the kidney controls dampness. [when dampness] enters the liver, [it may] cause weeping; [when dampness] enters the heart, [it may] cause sweating; [when dampness] enters the spleen, [it may] cause drooling; [when dampness] enters the lung, [it may] cause snivelling; [when dampness] enters the kidney, [it may] cause spitting. 病的人喜寒而又愿意见人；脏病属阴，所以患阴病的人喜温，又想关闭门户独居，不想听到说话声。根据病人的这些好恶表现，就可以辨别脏病和腑病了。

52.1 第五十二难说：脏和腑发生病变，其发病的根本相同不？

52.2 是这样的：其发病根本是不相同的。

52.3 不相同在哪些方面呢？

52.4 是这样的：脏病的部位固定不移，其部位不会移动；腑病好像有一种无形之气在流动作响，向上或向下游走，没有固定的部位。根据这些情况就可以知道脏病和腑病的根本不同之处了。

53.1 第五十三难说：医经上说，疾病七传则死，间隔一脏相传的则生。这是什么道理呢？

53.2 是这样的：所谓七传，就是传至其所胜之脏。间脏相传，就是传至其所生之脏。为什么这样讲呢？如心病传到肺，肺病传到肝，肝病传到脾，脾病传到肾，肾病传到心，每一个脏都不会再次受

[That is why the patients with] Yin disease desire warmth, want to close the door and stay alone, and dislike to hear other people talking. That is the way how to decide whether the disease is in the Zang-Organs or the Fu-Organs.

52. 1 The fifty-second issue: Are the diseases of the Zang-Organs and the Fu-Organs the same in causes?

52. 2 This is the answer: [They are] not the same.

52. 3 In what way are they different?

52. 4 This is the answer: The diseases of the Zang-Organs are fixed in location and never migrates. The diseases of the Fu-Organs move and make noises, running upwards and downwards without fixed locations. That is the way to determine the difference between the diseases of the Zang-Organs and the Fu-Organs.

53. 1 The fifty-third issue: The Canon says that [the diseases] transmitting through seven [viscera lead to] death and [the diseases] skipping a Zang-Organ [in transmission will not threaten the patient's] life. What does it mean?

53. 2 This is the answer: [The diseases that] transmit through seven [viscera are those that] transmit to [the organ that is] restricted and [the diseases that] skip [in transmission are those that] transmit to the Child-Organ. 54.1 第五十四难说：五脏的疾病难治，六腑的疾病易治。这是什么道理呢？

54.2 是这样的：五脏的疾病之所以难治，是因为传到所胜之脏的缘故；六腑的疾病之所以易治，是因为传到所生之脏的缘故。这与前面讲的七传和间脏而传的道理是一样的。

kidney and the kidney [disease] is transmitted to the heart, each Zang-Organ will not be impaired again. [If each Zang-Organ is impaired again, that will be critical] . That is why [the disease that] transmits to seven [organs will lead to] death. [The disease that] skips [in transmission will be] transmitted to [the organ that it] promotes. If the heart disease is transmitted to the spleen, the spleen [disease] is transmitted to the lung, the lung [disease] is transmitted to the kidney, the kidney [disease] is transmitted to the liver and the liver [disease] is transmitted to the heart, it means to transmit from the Mother-Organ to the Child-Organ round and round in an endless circle. That is why it is said [that the disease transmitting in such a way will not threaten the patient's] life.

54. 1 The fifty-fourth issue: The disease of the Zang-Organ is easy to cure but the disease of the Fu-Organ is difficult to cure. What does it mean?

54. 2 This is the answer: [The reason why] the disease of the Zang-Organ is difficult to cure [is that it is] transmitted [to the organ that it] restricts. [The reason why] the disease of the Fu-Organ is easy to cure [is that it is] transmitted to the Child-Organ. The way of its transmission is the same as that of [the disease that] transmits through seven [organs] and [the disease that] skips [in transmission].

之病，具有沉而伏的特征；属阳之病，具有浮而动的特征。因血气的蓄积而生之病称为积，因气聚集而生之病叫做聚。所以积病因五脏功能失调而生，聚病因六腑功能失调而生。积病是由于阴气失常所引起的病变，所以发病有固定的部位，疼痛也不离病变的范围，上下有起点和止点，左右有固定的界限。聚是由阳气失常所引起的病变，所以发作时没有固定的形质，上下移动，没有固定的停留部位，疼痛部位也不固定。根据上述症状就可以鉴别积病和聚病了。

56.1 第五十六难说：五脏的积病，各有各的名称吗？这五种病倒底是何月、何日产生的呢？

56.2 是这样的：肝的积病名为肥气，发生在左胁之下，有形状像倒扣的杯子一样的突出肿块，好像有头有足，日久不愈，引发咳嗽，气逆，疟疾，经年难愈。这种病发生于长夏季节的戊己日。为什么这样讲呢？因为肺病传到肝，肝病传到脾，但是长夏季节的戊己日是脾脏最旺盛的时

of] Yangqi. Yin sinks and hides while Yang floats and moves. The accumulation of [blood and] Qi is called accumulation [disease] and the gathering of Qi is called gathering [disease]. The accumulation [disease] is caused by [disorder of] the Five Zang-Organs and the gathering [disease] is caused by [disorder of] the Six Fu-Organs. The accumulation [disease pertains to] Yinqi. [So] it usually occurs at a fixed region, the pain [caused is] restricted to the range of the affected part. [It extends to] the upper and lower [regions with definite] limits and the left and right [sides with clear] boundaries. The gathering [disease is caused by disorder of] Yangqi. It usually occurs without definite form, moving upwards and downwards without fixed location. The pain caused is migratory. [These are the characteristics of the] gathering [disease]. This is the way to differentiate accumulation [disease] and gathering [disease].

56. 1 The fifty-sixth issue: Do the accumulation [diseases of] the Five Zang-Organs have names respectively? In what month and what day do they occur?

56. 2 This is the answer: The accumulation [disease of] the liver is called Feiqi (Fat-Qi), located below the left hypochondrium like a cup turned upside down. [It moves upwards and downwards like] having head and feet and lingers for a long time without healing, consequently resulting in cough, adverse flow of Qi and malaria. [It may] last for years and is difficult to cure. [Such a disease usually] occurs on the days of Wu and Ji in late summer. Why it is explained in that way? 56.3 心的积病名为伏梁，病位在脐之上，有肿块大如手臂，上至心下，日久难愈，使人心烦。这种积病是在秋天庚辛日所得。为什么这样讲呢？因为肾病传到心，心脏病传到肺，但肺脏在秋季庚辛之日最旺，这时不受从心所传之邪，心欲传邪于肾，但肾又不肯受，因此邪气就滞留在心，日久成为积病。所以知道心之积发生于秋季的庚辛日。

56.4 脾之积病名为痞气，发生在胃脘部位，有肿块突出如盘一样，日久不愈，病人四肢屈伸不利，引发黄疸，饮食营养化生不足而不能润泽肌肤。这种积病发生在冬季的壬癸日。为什么这样讲呢？因为肝病传邪于脾，脾病传邪到肾，但肾在冬季的壬癸日最旺，不会受

What does it mean?

61. 2 This is the answer: To diagnose [correctly through] inspection means to inspect the five colors in order to diagnose disease; to diagnose [correctly through] listening means to listen to the five sounds in order to diagnose disease; to diagnose [correctly through] inquiry means to ask [what] tastes [the patient] desires in order to diagnose where the disease is located; to diagnose [correctly through] taking the pulse means to examine

切脉而知之者，诊其寸口，视其虚实，以知其病，病在何脏腑也。经言以外知之曰圣，以内知之曰神，此之谓也。

62.2 然：腑者阳也，三焦行于诸阳，故置一俞，名曰原。腑有六者，亦与三焦共一气也。

63.1 六十三难曰：《十变》言，五脏六腑荣合，皆以井为始者，何也？

变部位；所谓切而知之，就是通过切按病人的寸口脉象而辨别病证的虚实，判断所患病证以及确定疾病发生在何脏何腑。医经上说，根据外在的症状辨别疾病的，称之为圣；根据诊察其内在变化以辨别疾病的，称之为神。道理就是这样的。

62.1 第六十二难说：五脏各有井穴、荣穴、输穴、经穴、合穴等五穴，六腑却各有六穴。这是为什么呢？

62.2 是这样的：六腑属阳，三焦之气行于诸阳经，所以就多了一个腧穴，这个腧穴名叫原穴。所以六腑的经脉各有六个腧穴，与三焦之气相通。

63.1 第六十三难说：《十变》说，五脏六腑各经都有井、荣、输、经、合五输穴，都以井穴为起始穴。这是为什么呢？

63.2 是这样的：井穴就像东方与春天一样，春天是阳气生发、万物萌生的季节，冬眠蛰藏之物都开始呼吸，爬行，飞翔，一切有生

the Chi [region] and the Cun [region] to distinguish Xu (Deficiency) and Shi (Excess) in order to diagnose disease and know where the disease is located. The Canon says [that the doctor who can] diagnose [disease] according to the external [manifestations] is a sage and [that the doctor who can] diagnose [disease] according to the internal [pathological changes] is like a god. The reason is just like that.

62. 1 The sixty-second issue: [Each of] the Zang-Organs has five [special Acupoints], namely Jing-Well, Ying-Spring, [Shu-Stream, Jing-River and He-Sea] . But [each of] the Six Fu-Organs has six [such special Acupoints]. What is the reason?

62. 2 This is the answer: The Fu-Organs [pertain to] Yang. [The Qi of] the Sanjiao (Triple Energizer) flows in the Yang [Channels]. That is why [there is] an extra Acupoint called Yuan (Primary-Acupoint). [So the Six] Fu-Organs have six [Acupoints because] the Sanjiao (Triple Energizer) shares the same Qi with [the other five Fu-Organs].

What is the reason?

63. 2 This is the answer: The Jing-Well [Acupoint symbolizes] the east [in the five orientations] and spring [in the five seasons] . 65.1 第六十五难说：医经说，所出为井，所入为合。其依据是什么呢？

65.2 是这样的：所出之腧穴称为井穴，这是因为井穴像东方和春天一样，万物开始萌生。所以把经脉气血流出之处称为井穴。所入之腧穴称为合穴，这是因为合穴像北方和冬天一样，阳气趋于闭藏，所以把经脉气血向深层流行的腧穴称为合穴。

65. 1 The sixty-fifth issue: The Canon says [that the Acupoint where the Channel-Qi] emerges is the Jing-Well and [that the Acupoint where the Channel-Qi] enters is the He-Sea. How to understand it?

65. 2 This is the answer: [The reason that the Acupoint where the Channel-Qi] emerges is that the Jing-Well [Acupoint is just like] the east and the spring. [In the spring] all things begin to grow. That is why it is said [that the Acupoint where the Channel-Qi] emerges is the Jing-Well. 66. 3 Why the Acupoints [through which the Qi from] the Sanjiao (Triple Energizer) flows are all the Yuan (Primary-Acupoints)?

70. 1 The seventieth issue: The Canon says that needling in spring and summer should be shallow and needling in autumn and winter should be deep. What is the reason?

70. 2 This is the answer: In spring and summer, Yangqi is rising up and Qi in the human body is floating in the shallow region. That is why the needling should be shallow. In autumn and winter, Yangqi goes into hiding and Qi in the human body hides in the deep [regions]. That is why the needling should be deep.

70. 3 In spring and summer, Yin should be induced; in autumn and winter, Yang should be induced. What is the reason?

70. 4 This is the answer: [Because it is] warm in spring and summer, [and therefore it is] necessary to induce Yin [to regulate Yang]. When the needle is inserted, [it should be] deepened to the regions [governed by] the kidney and the liver. [When] Qi is obtained, [the needle is] lifted [beneath the skin to guide] Yin [from the liver and the kidney to reach the Yang phase]. 71.2 This is the answer: To needle the Yang (Defensive-Qi), the needle should be inserted flatly. To needle the Yin (Nutrient-Qi), [the acupuncturist should] press the Acupoint to be needled with the left hand first, then the needle is inserted when Qi is dispersed. That is what not to impair the Wei (Defensive-Qi) when needling the Ying (Nutrient-Qi) and not to impair the Ying (Nutrient-Qi) when needling the Wei (Defensive-Qi) means.

74. 1 The seventy-fourth issue: The Canon says that the Jing-Well [Acupoint can be] needled in spring, the Ying-Spring [Acupoint can be] needled in summer, the Shu-Stream [Acupoint can be] needled in late summer, the Jing-River [Acupoint can be] needled in autumn and He-Sea [Acupoint can be] needled in winter. What does it mean?

者，邪在脾；秋刺经者，邪在肺；冬刺合者，邪在肾。

74.3 其肝心脾肺肾，而系于春夏秋冬者，何也？

74.4 然：五脏一病，辄有五也，假令肝病，色青者肝也，臊臭者肝也，喜酸者肝也，喜呼者肝也，喜泣者肝也，其病众多，不可尽言也。四时有数，而并系于春夏秋冬者也。针之要妙，在于秋毫者也。

75.1 七十五难曰：经言东方实，西方虚，泻南方，补北方，何谓也？

75.2 然：金木水火土，当更相平。东方木也，西方金也。木欲

【今译】

所以刺荣穴，是因为病邪在心；季夏之所以刺输穴，是因为病邪在脾；秋天之所以刺经穴，是因为病邪在肺；冬天之所以刺合穴，是因为病邪在肾。

74.3 为什么将肝、心、脾、肺、肾五脏分别与春、夏、季夏、秋、冬联系在一起呢？

74.4 是这样的：因为五脏中任何一脏发生病变，往往在五个方面有所表现。以肝病为例，面色青，病在肝；嗅闻臊气，病在肝；喜食酸味，病在肝；常呼叫，病在肝；常流泪，病在肝。五脏疾病多种多样，不能一一罗列。一年四季有一定的气候特征，五脏分别对应于春、夏、秋、冬。针刺的奥妙之处，就在于这些精微之处。

75.1 第七十五难说：医经说，东方实，西方虚，泻南方，补北方。这是什么意思呢？

75.2 是这样的：金、木、水、火、土互相制约以保持相对平衡。东方属于木，西方属于金。木将偏盛时，金即加以制约，使其平

in the liver; [the reason why] the Ying-Spring [Acupoint is] needled in summer[is that in summer] Xie (Evil) is in the heart; [the reason why] the Shu-Stream [Acupoint is] needled in late summer [is that in late summer] Xie (Evil) is in the spleen; [the reason why] the Jing-River [Acupoint is] needled in autumn [is that in autumn] Xie (Evil) is in the lung; [the reason why] the He-Sea [Acupoint is] needled in winter [is that in winter] Xie (Evil) is in the kidney.

74. 3 Why the liver, heart, spleen, lung and kidney correspond to the spring, summer, autumn and winter?

74. 4 This is the answer: [Because] the disease of one of the Five Zang-Organs [may be] manifested in five [aspects, namely five colors, five odors, five tastes, five sounds and five liquids]. If the liver disease [occurs], the virid complexion [is related to] the liver, the stink odor [is related to] the liver, the preference for sour [taste is related to] the liver, frequent shouting [is related to] the liver, frequent weeping [is related to] the liver. The diseases [of the Five Zang-Organs are] various and cannot be described one by one. The four seasons [in a year] bear specific characteristics related to the spring, summer, autumn and winter. The magic skill of needling lies in such subtle and minute aspects.

75. 1 The seventy-fifth issue: The Canon mentions Shi (Excess) of the east, Xu (Deficiency) of the west, reducing the South and reinforcing the North. What does it mean?

75. 2 This is the answer: The Metal, Wood, Water, Fire and Earth restrict each other to maintain a balance. The east [pertains to] Wood and the west [pertains to] Metal. [If] Wood is getting excessive, Metal will restrict it; [if] Fire is getting

实，金当平之；火欲实，水当平之；土欲实，木当平之；金欲实，火当平之；水欲实，土当平之。东方肝也，则知肝实；西方肺也，则知肺虚。泻南方火，补北方水。南方火，火者，木之子也；北方水，水者，木之母也，水胜火，子能令母实，母能令子虚，故泻火补水，欲令金不得平木也。经曰：不能治其虚，何问其余，此之谓也。

76.1 七十六难曰：何谓补泻？当补之时，何所取气？当泻之时，何所置气？

76.2 然：当补之时，从卫取气；当泻之时，从荣置气。其阳气

衡；火将偏盛时，水即加以制约，使其平衡；土将偏盛时，木即加以制约，使其平衡；金将偏盛时，火即加以制约，使其平衡；水将偏盛时，土即加以制约，使其平衡。东方对应于肝，东方实即指肝偏盛；西方对应于肺，西方虚即指肺偏虚。此时，可采用泻与南方火相应的心脏，补与北方水相应的肾脏。南方属火，火是木之子；北方属水，水是木之母。由于水能制火，所以补属子的脏就可以使母脏得以充实。泻属母的脏可以使子脏的邪气衰减。所以泻火补水，可令金制木，使其逐趋平衡。医经说，不能掌握补虚泻实之法，怎么能治疗其他疾病呢？讲的就是这个意思。

76.1 第七十六难说：什么叫补泻？运用补法时，怎样取气？用泻法时，怎样散气呢？

76.2 是这样的：当用补法时，应从卫分取气；当用泻法时，应

excessive, Water will restrict it; [if] Earth is getting excessive, Wood will restrict it; [if] Metal is getting excessive, Fire will restrict it; [if] Water is getting excessive, Earth will restrict it. The east [pertains to] the liver, so it can be inferred [that Shi (Excess) of the east means] Shi (Excess) of the liver; the west [pertains to] the lung, so it can be known [that Xu (Deficiency) of the west means] Xu (Deficiency) of the lung. [Shi (Excess) Syndrome of the liver can be treated by] reducing Fire in the south, [which means to treat the heart that pertains to the south with reducing needling techniques]; [Xu (Deficiency) Syndrome of the lung can be treated by] reinforcing Water in the north, [which means to treat the kidney that pertains to north with reinforcing needling techniques]. The south [pertains to] Fire [in the Wuxing (Five Elements)] and Fire is the child of Wood [because Fire is produced by Wood]; the north [pertains to] Water [in Five Elements] and Water is the mother of Wood [because Wood is produced by Water]. Water can overcome Fire, [so reinforcing] the Child-Organ can strengthen the Mother-Organ and [reducing] the Mother-Organ can weaken the Child-Organ. Hence reducing Fire and reinforcing Water can enable Metal to restrict Wood. The Canon says [that if one] cannot treat Xu (Deficiency) [Syndrome, he is certainly] unable to deal with other diseases. This is the reason.

76. 1 The seventy-sixth issue: What is reinforcing [therapy] and what is reducing [therapy]? How to obtain Qi [in using] reinforcing [therapy] and how to disperse Qi [in using] reducing [therapy]?

76. 2 This is the answer: In [application of] reinforcing

【原文】

不足，阴气有余，当先补其阳，而后泻其阴；阴气不足，阳气有余，当先补其阴，而后泻其阳。荣卫通行，此其要也。

77.1 七十七难曰：经言上工治未病，中工治已病者，何谓也？

77.2 然：所谓治未病者，见肝之病，则知肝当传之与脾，故先实其脾气，无令得受肝之邪，故曰治未病焉。中工者，见肝之病，不晓相传，但一心治肝，故曰治已病也。

【今译】

从营分散气。如果阳气不足，阴气有余，应当先补阳气，后泻阴气；如果阴气不足，阳气有余，则应先补阴气，后补阳气，使营卫之气畅通和调。这就是针刺补泻的基本原则。

77.1 第七十七难说：医经说，上工治未病，中工治已病。这是什么意思呢？

77.2 是这样的：所谓的治未病，即看到肝有病时，应当想到肝病将会传之于脾，因此应当预先采取措施充实脾气，使脾免受肝所传病邪的侵袭，这就是治未病的意思。而一般医生看到肝病时，不懂得疾病传变规律，只注意治疗肝病，这就叫做治已病。

[therapy], Qi can be obtained from the Wei (Defensive-Phase); in [application of] reducing [therapy], Qi can be dispersed from the Ying (Nutrient-Phase) . [If] the Yangqi is insufficient and Yinqi is excessive, [the treatment should focus on] reinforcing the Yang first and then reducing the Yin. [If] the Yinqi is insufficient and Yangqi is excessive, [the treatment should focus on] reinforcing the Yin first and then reducing the Yang. To smooth the flow of Ying (Nutrient-Qi) and Wei (Defensive-Qi) is the key [to the application of reinforcing therapy and reducing therapy].

77.1 The seventy-seventh issue: The Canon says that the excellent doctors take measures to prevent diseases from occurring while ordinary doctors only resort to treatment when the diseases have already occurred. What does it mean?

77.2 This is the answer: The so-called to take measures to prevent diseases from occurring [means to take preventive measures to deal with diseases] . [Take liver disease for example.] [When] liver disease has occurred, [the doctor should] know that it will be transmitted to the spleen [and therefore take measures] to reinforce the Spleen-Qi first so as to prevent liver disease from invading the spleen. That is what to take measures to prevent diseases means. [Still take liver disease as an example to show why] ordinary doctors only resort to treatment when the disease has already occurred. [When] liver disease has occurred, [ordinary doctors] do not know [that it will be] transmitted [to other organs] and just focus on treating the liver. That is why it is said [that ordinary doctors only] resort to treatment when the diseases have already occurred.

78.1 七十八难曰：针有补泻，何谓也？

78.2 然：补泻之法，非必呼吸出内针也。知为针者，信其左；不知为针者，信其右。当刺之时，先以左手压按所针荣俞之处，弹而努之，爪而下之，其气之来，如动脉之状，顺针而刺之，得气因推而内之，是谓补；动而伸之，是谓泻。不得气，乃与男外女内；不得气，是为十死不治也。

79.1 七十九难曰：经言迎而夺之，安得无虚，随而济之，安得

【今译】

78.1 第七十八难说：针刺有补法和泻法。这是什么意思呢？

78.2 是这样的：针刺的补法和泻法，不一定非要用随呼吸而进针出针的方法。擅长针刺治病的，善于使用左手；不擅长针刺治病的，只依赖持针的右手。在施针的时候，先用左手压按所要施针的穴位，并用手指弹揉，用爪甲切压，此时认真体会，经气到来时，就像动脉搏动一样，于是顺势进针。得气后，推针进入深处，这就是补法；摇动针体向上提，这就是泻法。如果没有得气，对男子就用浅提之法候气，对女子则用深插之法候气。如果仍然不能得气，那就难以救治了。

79.1 第七十九难说：医经说，运用“迎而夺之”之法，怎么能不使邪气由盛而衰呢？运用“随而济之”之法，怎么能不使正气由虚

78. 1 The seventy-eighth issue: There are reinforcing and reducing [techniques in needling]. What does it mean?

78. 2 This is the answer: [To use] reinforcing and reducing [techniques in needling, it is] unnecessary to insert and withdraw the needle in inhalation and exhalation. [Those who are] familiar with needling use the left [hand to press the Acupoints while those who are] not familiar with needling use the right [hand to press the Acupoints] . In needling, [the acupuncturist] must use the left hand to press the Acupoints to be needled, flicking, rubbing and nailing. [Through such a way of pressing,] the Qi will flow [to the pressed Acupoints] like [pulsation of] arteries. Then the needle is inserted. [When] Qi is obtained, [the needle is] pushed to the deep region. [Such a way of needling is] called reinforcing [needling]. [If the needle is] shaken and lifted up, [it is] called reducing [needling]. [If] Qi cannot be obtained, [the needle is lifted] superficially in males and pushed deeply in females. [If] Qi still cannot be obtained, [it shows that the disease is severe and] impossible to be cured.

79. 1 The seventy-ninth issue: The Canon says, to insert the needle along [the running direction of the Channel] will certainly reduce [Xieqi (Evil-Qi)] while to insert the needle against [the running direction of the Channel] will surely reinforce [Zhengqi (Healthy-Qi)]; [in using acupuncture to treat] the Xu (Deficiency) and Shi (Excess) [Syndromes, there will be a feeling of] obtaining [Qi beneath the needle when] reinforcing [technique is used to treat Xu (Deficiency) Syndrome], and [there will be a feeling of] losing [Qi beneath the needle when] reducing [needling technique is used to treat Shi (Excess)]

无实？虚之与实，若得若失；实之与虚，若有若无，何谓也？

79.2 然：迎而夺之者，泻其子也，随而济之者，补其母也。假令心病，泻手心主俞，是谓迎而夺之者也；补手心主井，是谓随而济之者也。所谓实之与虚者，牢濡之意也，气来实牢者为得，濡虚者为失，故曰若得若失也。

而实呢？针刺治疗时，虚证用补法，针下感觉充实；实证用泻法，针下感觉空虚。这是什么意思呢？

79.2 是这样的：所谓“迎而夺之”，即在属子的穴位上施行泻法；所谓“随而济之”，即在属母的穴位上施补法。如心脏有病时，取手厥阴心包经的输穴施行泻法，这就是“迎而夺之”；取手厥阴心包经属木的井穴施行补法，就是“随而济之”。所谓正邪的盛与衰，指针下坚紧有力和松软空虚的感觉。若针下有坚实有力的感觉，称之为得气；若针下有松软无力的感觉，称之为失气。这就是所谓的得与失。

Syndrome]; [in using acupuncture to treat] the Shi (Excess) and Xu (Deficiency) [Syndromes, there will be a feeling of] firmness [beneath the needle when] reducing [technique is used to treat Shi (Excess) Syndrome] and [there will be a feeling of] emptiness [beneath the needle when] reinforcing [needling technique is used to treat Xu (Deficiency) Syndrome] . How to understand such descriptions?

79.2 This is the answer: To insert the needle along [the running direction of the Channel in order to] reduce [pathogenic factor means to needle] the Child-Acupoint with reducing [techniques] and to insert the needle against [the running direction of the Channel in order to] reinforce [Healthy-Qi means to needle] the Mother-Acupoint with reinforcing [techniques]. Take heart disease [for example]. [It can be treated by needling] the Acupoints on the Pericardium [Channel of Hand-Jueyin with] reducing [techniques] . [Such a way of treatment is done by] inserting the needle along [the running direction of the Channel in order] to reduce [pathogenic factor]. [To needle] the Jing-Well [Acupoint of] the Pericardium [Channel of Hand-Jueyin with] reinforcing [techniques] means to insert the needle against [the running direction of the Channel in order to] reinforce [the Healthy-Qi] . The so-called Xu (Deficiency) and Shi (Excess) refer to the firm and soft feeling [beneath the needle] . [When there is] firm [feeling beneath the needle, it means that] Qi [has accumulated beneath the needle]; [when there is] soft [feeling beneath the needle, it means that pathogenic factor has left and that is why it is] called loss. That is what to obtain and to lose means.

【今译】

80.1 第八十难说：医经说“有见如入，有见如出”。这是什么意思呢？

80.2 是这样的：所谓“有见如入”，指左手按压穴位，等到经气到来时，将针刺入。所谓“有见如出”，指针刺入后，等到经气散去，即出其针。这就是“有见如入，有见如出”的意思。

81.1 第八十一难说：医经说，不要用补法治疗实证，补益其有余；也不要用泻法治疗虚证，损伤其不足。这里的虚实是指寸口脉象的虚实呢，还是指疾病的虚实呢？其中所讲的损益之误又是怎样的呢？

81.2 是这样的：这不是指寸口脉象的虚实，而是指疾病的虚实。如肝实而肺虚的病，肝属木，肺属金，金与木相互制约，所以治疗这种病就应采用补肺泻肝之法，使金能制木。如肺实肝虚的病，肝

80. 1 The eightieth issue: The Canon mentions to insert [the needle when it is] observed and to withdraw [the needle when it is] observed. What does it mean?

80. 2 This is the answer: The so-called to insert [the needle when it is] observed means to press [the Acupoint with] the left hand and insert the needle when Qi has come and withdraw the needle when Qi has dispersed. That is what to insert [the needle when it is] observed and to withdraw [the needle when it is] observed means.

81. 1 The eighty-first issue: The Canon says that Shi (Excess) [Syndrome should] not [be treated by] reinforcing [therapy] and Xu (Deficiency) [Syndrome should] not [be treated by] reducing [therapy] and that insufficiency [should not be treated by] reducing [therapy] and superabundance [should not be treated by] nourishing [therapy]. Do [such therapeutic errors] refer to [the Xu (Deficiency) and Shi (Excess) conditions of] the pulse in Cunkou or Xu (Deficiency) and Shi (Excess) of the disease itself? What do reducing and nourishing mean?

81. 2 This is the answer: [This] refers to [Xu (Deficiency) and Shi (Excess) of] the disease, not [the conditions of] the pulse in Cunkou [because] the disease itself is either Xu (Deficiency) or Shi (Excess) [in nature] . Take [the disease characterized by] Shi (Excess) of the liver and Xu (Deficiency) of the lung [for example]. The liver [pertains to] Wood and the lung to Metal. Metal restricts Wood [to maintain a] balanced [relationship between them] . It should be known that Metal restricts Wood. Take [the disease characterized by] Shi (Excess) of the lung, Xu (Deficiency) of the liver and slight insufficiency of Qi [for example]. [If it is treated by] needling not for tonifying the liver but for reinforcing the lung, [it means] to reinforce Shi (Excess) and weaken Xu (Deficiency), to reduce insufficiency and strengthen superabundance. These are the mistakes made by ordinary doctors.
